GC mayor candidates to debate tomorrow night

The major face-to-face confrontation of the three candidates for mayor of Granite City—the only debate of the campaign—will take place at 7 p.m. tomorrow in the American Legion Hall, 1825 State St.

The event is being sponsored by the Granite City Business and Professional Women's Club with the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce serving as an advisory body.

The public will be invited to attend and seating will be on a first-come, first-served basis.

Jim Livingston, executive vice-president of the Chamber, will serve as moderator for the debate and will discuss the rules prior to the debate beginning. No personal attacks will be allowed under the format which calls for "a gentlemen's debate," Livingston explained.

Rosalie Stern, BPW president, will give the welcoming address. Candidates then will draw numbers to determine the order in which they will answer the first question.

Each will have three minutes to answer the question. All three will answer each question in rotating order.

National hunt to fill BAC post

By BILL WINTER
of the Press-Record

A national search for a permanent president of Belleville Area College was authorized here last night by the Board of Trustees.

A capacity crowd of 85 at the Granite City Board of Education office included friends and foes of Dr. Bruce Wissore, acting president and a candidate for the position. The four-month to six-month search will include present BAC administrators.

Board Member Jack Becker, in voicing the motion for the nationwide effort, called for it to be conducted in an orderly process and urged that "all special interest groups conduct themselves in an orderly manner so that the search can be successfully completed."

The estimate of four to six months required is that of the Illinois Community College Board. Details of the search will be decided in future BAC trustee discussions. Chairman Robert Dintelmann said.

Voting for the nationwide search were Dintelmann, Becker, Avery Schermer, Mrs. Elizabeth Jenner, Edward O'Malley and Mrs. Martha Potter, a student member of the board. Curt Eckert opposed the search, and Mrs. Patricia Bartoskas voted "present."

Many of those in the audience were current and former BAC faculty members, including opponents of Dr.

Wissore's cost-cutting policies and administrative methods.

Acknowledging rumors that the presidency might be decided last night, the acting president told the gathering that some persons had told him in recent days, "Bruce, we hope you are appointed president" and that others had said, "We hope you are not appointed."

He added, "As I said months ago, the community owns our school, and the board members represent the community. Whether we're discussing personnel or productivity or any department, it must be remembered that the community owns the school. I wanted to make that statement."

Cost of the search was not estimated, but Dintelmann indicated that it may utilize the help of Presidential Search Consultation Services, Inc., a firm that prepared a preliminary study for BAC. The study was accepted last night but has not been publicly released; it is said to suggest that an "outsider" be selected for the presidency.

Earlier in the board meeting, Dr. Wissore was granted a three-year contract extension as BAC vice-president for executive services. He holds that position in addition to the interim presidency.

Duties of many administrators have been consolidated in an effort to balance revenue and costs, and Dr. Wissore this week called attention to "fiscal achievements" of his first nine months in the interim position, including a "million dollar turn-around" under my leadership.

The board last night approved his recommendations to name Dr. Francis P. Gornick as dean of baccalaureate programs and Dr. Robert Eskridge as dean of career-oriented programs. There were 90 applicants for the two posts, and 12 were interviewed. Each has been the acting dean since January.

Two of three proposed career-oriented division supervisors were approved for the 1981-82 academic year—James Cox as supervisor of business related and assigned programs, and Clay Baitman as supervisor of allied health, personal and public services and assigned programs (experimental basis).

The board tabled until April the naming of Don Koleson as supervisor of aviation and assigned programs, awaiting a fuller report to be prepared on such a consolidation of responsibilities.

In proposing the three as supervisors, Dr. Wissore said the move provided $50,000 in direct annual savings and an $80,000 reduction in released-time supervisory costs.

The trustees accepted the retirement of Mrs. Ruth M. Kombrink as board secretary and authorized a $7,494 payment to her for accumulated sick leave.

Mrs. Kathryn Rowold, Dr. Wissore's secretary, was named board secretary responsible for agendas and minutes. She will combine this with her present duties.

Other work of Mrs. Kombrink was assigned elsewhere; reviewing of bills will be handled by the board office, and checks will be prepared by the secretary to the vice-president for administrative services. Mrs. Kombrink's work in conducting BAC elections is now shouldered by the clerk of each county in Community College District 522.

Mrs. Myra Jane Bonn, who is continuing as college treasurer, was given a three-fifths part-time professional contract effective today. She will receive no fringe benefits but will be paid $10,685 yearly.

The board discussed the presidency in an executive session that began at 2 p.m. Wednesday at the BAC daytime instruction center in Granite City, Washington School.

It missed a 5:30 dinner that it gave for the Granite City School Board at Alexander's Restaurant. Due to the length of their private discussion, the BAC trustees instead settled for sandwiches brought to Washington School.

The executive session continued past the scheduled 7 p.m. start of the official board meeting, and the crowd was kept outdoors in near-freezing weather until 7:20. The monthly meeting opened at 7:45 and was adjourned at 9:05.

In the public comment period, several spoke against Dr. Wissore, one accusing him of accepting inappropriate pay while serving as an evening supervisor at BAC.

A GC council meetings in town hall

For the foreseeable future, all meetings of the Granite City Council will be held in the township hall, 21st Street and Delmar Avenue, which is accessible to the handicapped, the council decided at its regular meeting Tuesday night.

Even this week's meeting was held in the township building, much to the surprise of many who had not heard about the last-minute announcement.

The aldermen decided Tuesday night that on those regular council meetings for which the town hall already is committed for other activities, the council will meet the following day, still in the township hall.

Granite City Township Supervisor said he has studied the schedule for the remainder of 1981 and found only four dates in which the regular council meeting night falls on a night when the township hall already is committed for other activities.

One of those conflicting dates is April 7, which would be changed, anyway, since that is election night and the council never meets on election night, according to City Clerk Bob Stevens.

Other Tuesday nights in which there are conflicts in use of the hall are April 21, Nov. 3 and Dec. 1, Hagnauer said.

On a motion by Alderman Paul Ray Bowler, the council agreed to hold those meetings the following nights, Wednesdays April 22, Nov. 4 and Dec. 2.

With those exceptions, the council will meet the first, third and fourth Tuesday of each month in the township hall. Meetings begin at 8 p.m.

Stevens later said he does not feel that moving the council meetings to the township hall is the best solution for helping the handicapped. "They still can't climb the stairs to get to the courts, the mayor's office or even my office."

"There are a lot of offices in city hall those in wheelchairs and even those with circulation or breathing problems cannot get to and I would like to see that corrected," Stevens said.

He noted it would be expensive to install an elevator in the city hall (the last engineer's estimate was about $50,000), but said he feels that would be a good use for some of the federal revenue sharing funds the city receives.

Most aldermen Tuesday night expressed agreement with holding all future meetings in the township hall, but questioned whether an ordinance would have to be passed formalizing the move.

Mayor Paul Schuler said he does not believe an ordinance is required, (Continued on Page 3)

Permits for past industrial work boost building permits

Boosted by Granite City Steel "catch-up" building permits for projects begun in 1979 and 1980, the building permits issued by Granite City during February swelled to $3,355,996, it was announced this week by William Dallas Jr., secretary of the city's inspection department.

One Granite City Steel project for $2,993,000 worth of work done in 1979 comprised the major portion of the month's permits and a 1980 permit for $306,912 for the steel company added to the total.

Other large permits included a $30,000 project to remodel the former Frattler's Clothing Store, 1326 Niedringhaus Ave., for expansion of the Callis law office, a $3,500 roof on the Pop Dock, 2326 Nameki Road, and a $3,500 pre-fabricated building for Flash Cube Inc. 3254 Nameki Road, in Bollemer Village Shopping Center.

The Moose Lodge, 19th and Adams streets, also was granted a permit to install a $2,800 metal roof, according to the monthly report.

Other permits were granted to: Mattie Shackelford, 2914 Palmer, soffit and gutters, $1,800; Walter Waligorski, 2114 Washington, siding, soffit and gutters, $6,800; Frank Woods, 2404 Sunbury, two entrance doors, siding, soffit and gutters, $4,500; Kenneth Archer, 2015 Washington, repair roof, $3,000; Carl Bain, 2643

Fourteenth, repair roof, $1,500; John White, 108 Briarhaven, interior and exterior remodeling, $1,000; Ronald Raynor, 2416 Illinois, remodeling, $9,881; Ebbie's Confectionery, 2250 Washington, roof repairs, $17,000; June Scherger, 2923 Palmer, wrought-iron railing, $240.

Revival continues at Grace Baptist

Grace Baptist Church, 2600 Edwards St., is holding its annual spring revival which opened Sunday with the morning worship service at 10:45 p.m. Services will continue nightly, through Friday, at 7 p.m. Nursery facilities will be provided for each service.

The evangelist will be Clyde Chiles of St. Louis, who is well known to this area. He previously conducted a revival at Grace Baptist in October of 1967. Friday night, March 20, will be designated as "Youth Night," with special emphasis being placed on the talents of the youth and children of the church.

The public is invited to attend, according to Don Miller, chairman of the deacons.

Fifth annual All-City Vocal Music Festival set March 21

The Granite City Music Department will present its fifth annual All-City Vocal Music Festival, Saturday, March 21 at 7:30 p.m. in the High School Memorial Gymnasium.

This year's distinguished guest conductor is David Castonguay from the University of Illinois.

Castonguay received his bachelor of science in music education and his master of arts in voice conducting from the University of Connecticut. He is presently working on his doctorate of musical arts and choral conducting at the University of Illinois.

A member of the American Choral Directors Association (ACDA) and the Vermont Music Educators Committee, he is also serving as Vermont State President for the ACDA.

He is originally from Bristol, Conn., and has done most of his teaching and lecturing in the New England area. He has served as guest conductor of Vermont Music Festivals and adjudicator of All-State Auditions in Connecticut, New Hampshire and Vermont for the past five years.

He was a 1974 Scholarship participant in the Saratoga Patsdam Choral Institute with the Philadelphia Orchestra; a 1976 member of the ACDA Bi-Centennial Chorus in Interlochen, Michigan; and guest soloist with the Vermont Philharmonic and Vermont Symphony Orchestras.

Castonguay will be rehearsing with the elementary, junior high, and high school choruses throughout the day and conducting all of the choruses at the evening performance on March 21.

The festival includes chorus students from all the schools in the Granite City School District.

Joseph Owens is the district Music Consultant and Mrs. Patricia Michaeloff is the vocal music specialist. Music directors are: Mary Ann Bright, South High School; Gail Mueller, North High School; Deloris Barker, Grigsby Junior High; Cheryl Compton, Coolidge; Sterling Schoen, Prather Junior High; Patricia Michaeloff and Julia Oyen, elementary choruses.

Tickets may be purchased from any chorus member or at the door. Prices are 75 cents for adults and 50 cents for students.

Mitchell Church to hear Ralph Green

The Mitchell Assembly of God Church, 321 W. Chain of Rocks Road, will host the singing ministry of Ralph Green, Saturday, March 22, at 10:45 a.m.

Pastor A. W. Teal and the congregation extends an invitation to area residents to attend, it was announced. The pastor added, anyone needing transportation are advised to call 931-2966. A nursery will be provided during the service he said.

Pack 122 holds annual dinner

A candlelight ceremony and flag presentation by Den Two, led by Nancy Nemeth, opened Cub Pack 122's annual Blue and Gold banquet at Wilson School.

The dinner tables were appointed with blue and gold streamers and floral arrangements in matching colors. The table decorations were made by Mrs. Nemeth. Corsages, also in blue and gold, were presented to the scout leaders.

The Rev. James R. Legate offered the invocation and dinner was served by several parents.

During the program, Cubmaster Pete Fourcalt was presented an official scout hat and shirt by Woody Moad, scout coordinator.

A special guest at the event was Leo Kalpis, who helped to start Pack 122 about 40 years ago. He related some of the history of the pack during its founding period.

Den Four Cubs entertained with a skit on Paul Bunyon, noting their research into the exploits of the legendary character was accomplished at the Granite City Public Library.

In an honors ceremony, the following boys received badges, pins and awards: Weibels—Jimmy Stout, webelo badge and activity and President's Achievement awards: Kenney McGee, two-year pin, webelo badge and President's Achievement award; Craig Dipple, artist, outdoorsman, aquanaut, sportsman, showman and athletic awards and webelo badge; Denny Legate and Joe Hosier, two-year pin, citizen award and webelo badge; Craig Yager and John Moad, two-year pin and webelo badge; Roger Morthland, two-year pin, webelo badge and sportsman award.

Den Four Cubs, led by Den Mother Becky Lipchik and assistants, Pat Dawes and Charlotte Yarbrough, receiving awards included:

Phillip Stucker, Bobby Lipchik and Chris Anderson, Wolf badge and one gold and one silver arrow; Buddy Vinson, Bear badge, three gold and one silver arrow; Steve Willard, Bear badge, one gold, one silver and three advancement beads; Jerry Lipchik, one gold, two silver, Bear badge and three beads; Ricky Dawes, Bear badge, one gold and five silver arrows; Billy Yarbrough, Bear badge, one gold, one silver and one bead; Mark Hinson, Wolf badge, one gold one silver and three beads; Keith Nemeth and Eric Millis, President's Achievement award; and Chris Weis was enrolled as a new Cub Scout.

saying, "It can be done on a motion or any way we choose."

A motion by Alderman Glen Sprankle of the Fourth Ward to hold all future meetings in the town hall then was approved unanimously. Alderman Charles Douglas of the First Ward and Lloyd Bailey of the Fifth Ward were absent.

In other business, the council was warned that it has only two weeks in which to decide the salaries for the next four years for all of the city and township officials to be elected in the April 7 election.

Assessor Von Dee Cruse said the new consolidated elections law requires the salaries to be set by March 30 for the next terms of the assessor and supervisor, a requirement of which the city and township was unaware. "We just found out," Mayor Schuler said.

The salaries of the mayor, city clerk, city treasurer and aldermen also must be set by March 30, the mayor said. Cruse warned the council, "It's going to be down to the wire," and noted there are no more regular town board meetings scheduled before the March 30 deadline. (Because the city and the township share identical boundaries, the council meets as the town board of trustees on the first and third Tuesdays of each month before convening as the city council.)

He said a special meeting of the town board will have to be called to set the salaries of the township's employees before March 30.

On a motion by Alderman Mac Warfield of the Sixth Ward, the council agreed to hold a special meeting of the town board at 8 p.m. Tuesday, March 24, preceded by a closed caucus at 7 p.m. The regular city council meeting will follow the special town board meeting.

Mayor Paul Schuler said he will ask Township Attorney William Schooley to prepare a new salary ordinance, leaving the salaries blank, and the council then can fill in the salaries and pass the ordinance at the special meeting.

City Attorney John Papa will prepare a similar ordinance for those city officials to be elected April 7.

Truck falls into creek

Thomas V. Salas, 27, of 4861 Bruene Ave., Mitchell, suffered shock and exposure after his pickup truck struck a bridge abutment on State Rd 36 in Nameoki Township and flipped down into a creek early Tuesday.

He managed to get out of the truck and crawl to the side of the roadway, where he lost consciousness. He was found at 5:20 a.m. and authorities were notified.

He was taken to St. Elizabeth Medical Center for treatment and was admitted for a head injury. He was listed in "good condition" today.

He told authorities he believes he fell asleep at the wheel, allowing the truck to hit the abutment.

Nearly all of the vehicle owners said they had experienced no problems with anyone and had no suspects.
Estimated replacement costs vary from $50 to $100 per window.

2 more school cafeterias looted

Two more schools were broken into and the kitchens raided. It was discovered early this morning.
Several hundred pounds of meat, cheese and butter were stolen from Parkway School, 3200 Maryville Road, and police apparently halted a burglary in progress at Maryville School, 4651 Maryville Road, after meat and food were stacked on a cart near the cafeteria.

The burglaries mark the third and fourth recent school burglaries in Granite City in which food from the cafeteria was the target.

CHEEK BROKEN, 2 YOUTHS ARRESTED
Eddie Bridges, 2301 Nameoki Road, Trailer 18, suffered a left cheek fracture at 2:25 a.m. Wednesday when struck with a fist. He was admitted to St. Elizabeth Medical Center after being taken there by ambulance.

Michael Bridges, 17, of 2014 Edwardsville Road, was arrested for battery in connection with the injury on Nameoki Road, and was released upon posting $35 bond. Donald W. Bridges, 19, of 2301 Nameoki Road, Trailer 12, was released on $140 bond on a disorderly conduct complaint signed by Michael Bridges and on three Wood River arrest warrants.

This morning's incidents began at 3 a.m. today when an officer discovered a window had been removed from Maryville School. Officers climbed through the window and found a three-tiered cart on wheels loaded with meat by the door to the cafeteria.

The top tier was filled with a box of hamburger and chicken, the second tier bore a box of hot dogs and hamburger patties and the bottom tier was filled with bottled soft drinks.
In the kitchen, two boxes of butter, a box of chicken and a box of cheese were among the food items found on the counter.

Two cigar boxes had been removed from a desk and searched for money, but none was taken, officers noted.

Two county deputies and a county's search dog assisted police in searching the building, but the burglars apparently escaped.
Principal Jack Mulach arrived and the food items were returned to the freezers and kitchen coolers. It is not known if anything was taken.

Police then checked other nearby schools and reported all, including Parkway School, which was checked at 5 a.m., appeared secure.
Later, school officials reported that Parkway

School had been burglarized and food stolen. Officers have not determined how entry was gained.
Known missing from Parkway School are 50 pounds of chicken, 90 pounds of hamburger, 70 pounds of butter, fish, hot dogs, pizza and other food.

MOTORCYCLE TAKEN
A blue Honda motorcycle owned by Timothy Warren was stolen from his garage at 2532 State St. early Wednesday.

Madison Council honors state champion team

A resolution honoring the Madison High School Trojan basketball team for winning the state Class A championship and "for their great accomplishment for the city of Madison," was approved with "gusto" by the Madison City Council Tuesday night. The Trojans won the top prize Saturday night in the state Class A tournament in the Assembly Hall at Champaign. In other business, City Comptroller Albert Hudzik was granted permission to loan $7,500 from the city's special improvement fund to the alarm service fund as working capital for the city's cable television system, now under construction. Hudzik said progress is being made in construction of the city-owned cable TV system and the service should be offered to the citizens "very soon." The council was informed of a summons for some city officials to appear in small claims court to answer harassment charges. A young man alleges that Madison police harassed him during an investigation into a gun being displayed in a public building. Hudzik announced that there will be a public hearing at 1 p.m. Tuesday in the city hall for citizens' input on a grant application being prepared by the city for Community Development funds. The city intends to apply for a portion of the $260,000 the county has allocated for housing rehabilitation and the deadline for cities to submit applications is Friday, March 27.

Schools face 25% fund cut

A 25 percent federal fund cutback for 1981-82 is foreseen, worsening the revenue outlook for the Granite City Board of Education as it prepares to conduct a public hearing at 7 p.m. Tuesday, March 24, on the honorable dismissal of an unspecified number of teachers.

State aid next year is expected to be up slightly, but not enough to match the impact on school costs of the continuing economic inflation. School Supt. B. J. Davis said Wednesday it is still not certain how many teacher dismissals will be proposed at the hearing. The figure for June 1981 termination is likely to be "less than 30," on top of previous faculty reductions of more than 100 in the past five years, he added.

The scheduled staff reduction, also affecting nine to 12 non-certificated employees, is attributed to a declining enrollment. In addition, spending has been exceeding income, causing growing indebtedness.

The estimate of a loss of a fourth of next year's federal funds for the Granite City district is based on information assembled by Dr. Donald Gill, Illinois education superintendent. Governmental financial aid for school lunches may fall 40 percent, complicating the already existing deficit in cafeteria operations.

Granite City public schools currently employ about 615 teachers, principals and administrators and about 250 non-certificated employees, including secretarial, food service, custodial and maintenance staffs.

Along with further trimming of the various staffs this spring and summer, the board next week will consider additional details on nine of ten budget-balancing options initially discussed during the past winter. The tenth possibility, closing of one or more schools, will be evaluated this April or May for the 1982-83 school year.

Employee agreements are due to expire June 30. No timetable has been set for this spring's bargaining talks on agreements for the period beginning July 1, but the task of selecting negotiating teams has been started.

New rehabilitation program by city

Under a new program, Granite City has acquired ownership of a four-family flat at 2141-43 Edison Ave., and will seek bids to sell it to a person or family who will agree to rehabilitate the property.

The city will impose some conditions on the purchaser to assure that the person purchasing the property immediately begins major repairs. The program, which has been used successfully in St. Louis, according to Alderman Paul Fisk, chairman of the city's rehabilitation committee, is different than the program the city has used in the past of purchasing single-family homes, contracting for their remodeling and repair and then selling the rehabilitated home.

High interest rates have made it impossible to sell, at a fair market price, the last house the city rehabilitated, it was indicated.

On a motion by Fisk, the aldermen agreed Tuesday night to seek bids on the four-family building.

Many bus improvements, cost reductions—Houghton

Charles G. Houghton, executive director of the Bi-State Development Agency, in a talk Tuesday to the Belleville Rotary Club highlighted management improvements and efficiency measures that have been implemented at the agency.

He emphasized the importance of administrative and operational changes introduced to achieve "better service to communities in all of Bi-State's projects, especially in public transportation."

Some examples Houghton used to illustrate administrative advances were:

—Ending in July 1980 of quarterly cost-of-living salary increases that had been given to Bi-State management employees.

—Negotiations regarding cost-of-living and other potentially inflationary items, which have resulted in the issues going to arbitration.

—Reorganization of the management structure, enabling a new general manager of administration

Wilson pupils in PTA contest

The entries of three pupils from Wilson School in the National Parent-Teacher Association's Reflection project—"What A Family Means to Me"—are among the winners from the Granite City PTA Area Council and PTA District 29.

The winning students are: Becky Kramer, a sixth grade pupil and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis (Delilah) Kramer, whose entry is in the Literature category; and Cheryl Thomas, third grade, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Thomas, and Christine Cruse, first grade, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mark (Kathy) Cruse, who were successful in the Visual Arts category.

Their entries are among those being submitted to the Illinois Congress of Parents and Teachers for judging in the state contest.

and finance to revise and tighten up administrative, financial and purchasing procedures.

—Consolidation planned this summer of widely scattered management segments into one headquarters location at Laclede's Landing, resulting in estimated annual savings of several hundred thousand dollars through improved efficiency, including better internal communications among staff, increased energy efficiency from solar and insulation techniques, elimination of office rental costs, and savings through utilization of an agency-owned and operated computer system replacing the present rental system.

Operating changes listed were:

—Purchase of over 200 "new look" buses, with delivery beginning in May. These are basically the same type of buses now used. This decision was based on the proven reliability, maintenance efficiency and economic viability of the new model, as opposed to a glossy version of buses that has demonstrated many problems during the first period of use in other parts of the country.

—Inauguration in April of a long-range garage replacement and renovation program, allowing assembly line work and component exchange for improved productivity in maintenance.

—Replacement in the near future of scratched plastic bus windows, which impede visibility and appear dirty, with safety glass similar to automobile windows.

—Development of improved informational aids for bus passengers, including an atlas-type map of area bus lines, the first in years. It will be available in the coming months.

—A reduction in accident rates and absenteeism through a change in rules and control methods.

—Improvement of maintenance procedures through use of additional spare components, including engines and transmissions, providing a "quick change" capability.

—Development of checklist procedures to provide better supervisory control.

—Installation of air starters for more reliable engine starts in winter weather.

—Implementation of an on-board bus security program in which off-duty plain-clothes policemen and sheriff's deputies ride buses throughout the system.

—Construction of 545 bus shelters throughout the bi-state area.

Houghton also spoke of the April 7 advisory elections in St. Clair and Monroe counties. The voting will decide if people want the two transit districts and the transit sales tax enacted by the county boards in December.

"The real issue that the people of St. Clair and Monroe have to decide," said Houghton, "is whether public transportation is a necessary community service like public education, police and fire protection."

"This is a chance for the people to voice their opinions to their elected officials about the need for public transportation."

"Today, no major transit system can survive without subsidies. The cost would be too great for the average bus rider to pay if the system were supported only from farebox receipts."

"It costs about $1.50 to carry each passenger, and yet the basic fare is 50 cents. In St. Clair County, 52 percent of the bus riders earn less than $10,000 a year and 40 percent either do not have a car or do not drive."

"The transit districts provide an opportunity for Bi-State to work directly with people's elected representatives to deliver public transportation where it is wanted, and we hope this relationship will continue. We regard the elections as a key decision about the future of public transportation in these counties."

Susan Neubauer choreographer for state winner

The Highland Swing Choir has won its second consecutive first place in the Illinois State Music Contest held at Bethalto High School. It was also the second consecutive year that choreography for the group was the work of Suzy Neubauer of Granite City.

Vocal direction is by Mrs. Marge Clayton, vocal director of the Highland School District. The 14 members were chosen by auditions and are all students at Highland Senior High School.

Miss Neubauer is a sophomore student at SIUE, majoring in special education and theater with a dance emphasis. She is also a member of the SIUE Concert Dance Company and has been appearing at a number of schools in the area to give dance demonstrations and lectures.

19 top ratings for Coolidge

Coolidge Junior High School band students captured 19 first-place ratings at the annual District Solo and Ensemble contest held in Godfrey during the weekend.

Frohhardt School band pupils received six first place ratings and Parkview School band members earned three first place ratings.

Twenty-nine students under the direction of Miss Elsie Maylath entered 31 events which included 21 solos and 10 ensembles. Piano accompanist for the Coolidge group was Mrs. Julia Oyen.

First ratings for Coolidge solos were awarded to Nancy Dimitroff and John Johannpeter, flute; Ruth Stille and Michelle Staggs, clarinet; Susan Stephens, oboe; Joe Atchley, David Matchett and Richard Hagen, cornet; David Menendez and Diane Oliver, French horn; Danny Graft, trombone; Robert Kirkpatrick, tuba. Second place solo went to Vicki Hlava, oboe.

First ratings for Coolidge ensembles were awarded to Rob Malench and Tom Gagich, percussion duet; Mike Voss and Ricky Cain, snare drum duet; Rob Malench, Frank Woods, Mike Voss, Tom Gagich and Alan Gerard, percussion quintet; Ricky Cain, Alan Gerard, Frank Woods and Rob Malench, percussion quartet; Ruth Stille, Michelle Staggs and Marie Bristol, mixed clarinet trio; Joe Atchley, David Matchett, Sean McClure and John Kirkpatrick, brass quartet. Second place ensembles went to John Kirkpatrick, Danny Graft, Sean McClure and Robert Kirkpatrick, brass quartet; Susan Stephens and Vicki Hlava, oboe duet.

Frohhardt School first-place winners were Kim Asbeck and Ellen Moss, flute solo and flute duet; Rebecca Bonvicino and Tammy Wroten, clarinet solo and clarinet duet.

Parkview School first place soloists were Beth Brinkhoff, flute; David Maxwell, clarinet; Charles Leavelle, trombone.

Beth Potillo served as piano accompanist for all elementary pupils from Frohardt and Parkview Schools.

Green ribbons signify concern over deaths of 20 children in Atlanta

By VALERIE EVENDEN
of the Press-Record

The first of many bright green ribbons was seen this week in the Quad-Cities.

The small green ribbons are being worn by individuals who are concerned about the murder of 20 black children in Atlanta, Ga., and the unsuccessful results, at least so far, in apprehending the killer.

Starting during the weekend and seemingly almost overnight, many people in different areas of the United States began wearing the ribbons.

Mrs. Helen King, president of the Madison Branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), said the local organization decided to show its concern for the killings and the families of the dead children by distributing the green ribbons here.

Anyone may obtain a ribbon at the Urban League office, 306 Broadway, Venice, the Ben Franklin Store, 1441 Third St., Madison, Bank's Confectionary, 1100 Logan St., Venice, or by calling Mrs. King at 451-2370.

The Rev. John Henry Williams, NAACP program chairman, said the local branch is asking that the ribbons "continue to be worn until the killer is caught."

"Should the murderer be caught within the next two weeks, we hope everyone will still wear the ribbons until April 4, the anniversary of the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.," the minister said.

A spokesman in the office of Atlanta Mayor Maynard

Jackson said this week the city was "deeply appreciative" of communities that have responded throughout the nation with efforts of concern.

The spokesman suggested that persons concerned about the killings wear a small green ribbon "to symbolize life and growth of youth."

"When the killer or killers are apprehended, the ribbons will be replaced by red ribbons," he said.

Residents in Alton (Ill.) are calling this week a "week of concern for the people of the Atlanta area."

The Alton NAACP and Madison County Urban League have announced they are urging prayer services and financial support to benefit the investigation of the murders.

Car hits pole

Billy J. Mainer, 51, Edwardsville, was injured when his car went off Route 200 (Nameoki Road) at the curve at East Chain of Rocks Road and snapped a utility pole in two about 5:15 a.m. Wednesday.

Mainer, who was issued a ticket alleging reckless driving, told police he thought he saw another car driving toward him and he served off the road to avoid the other car.

He suffered visible injuries, but declined to be taken to St. Elizabeth Medical Center.

His car ended up resting on the lower portion of the pole and supporting the upper portion. A coordinated effort between Union Electric and Illinois Bell crews and a tow truck were required to remove it later Wednesday.

Mr. Edwards was a member of the South High School Science Club and, in his sophomore year, had served as assistant manager of the South soccer team. He was a certified scuba diver.

Patron of soldiers beheaded in 303

Military orders of St. George, the patron saint of soldiers, have long been popular throughout Europe and he is venerated by both the Greek Orthodox Church and the Roman Catholic Church.

But little is known about him except that he was a Roman soldier, was converted to Christianity and beheaded in 303 by Roman Emperor Diocletian for tearing down an anti-Christian edict.

George Nemeth

George J. Nemeth, 39, of 30 Cambridge Court, a wrestling coach at Granite City High School North and twice an Illinois State wrestling champion during his high school career, died of a heart ailment at 8 p.m. Tuesday, March 17, 1981, at Barnes Hospital, St. Louis.

He had been ill the past two weeks and was a hospital patient for one week.

Mr. Nemeth was born in Granite City and was a lifelong resident.

While a student at Granite City High School South, Mr. Nemeth was an outstanding wrestler and compiled an impressive record of 65 consecutive victories in dual and championship meets.

He won the 1957 state championship title in the 95 pound class as a sophomore and repeated the same feat in 1958 in the 103 pound class, defeating the defending state champion.

Mr. Nemeth went on to wrestle at Iowa State University at Ames, Iowa. Later, he attended Eastern Illinois University at Charleston and Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

He had been employed by Granite City School District 9 for the past 10 years, serving as a wrestling coach and driver education instructor at North High School since that building was opened in 1972. Previously, he taught at Frather Junior High School.

Mr. Nemeth was a member of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, Granite City Aerie 1126.

He was preceded in death by his father, Steve Nemeth.

Among the survivors are his wife, Mrs. Judith (Gatung) Nemeth; two children, Lori L. Nemeth and Gregory Nemeth, both at home; his mother, Mrs. Mary Nemeth of Granite City; one brother, John Nemeth of Granite City; and two sisters, Mrs. Ronald (Ella) Grzesk of Shreveport, La., and Mrs. Jay (Janet) Fineshrber of Granite City.

Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. Saturday, March 21, at Bob Thomas Memorial Mortuary Chapel, 2205 Pontoon Road, with the Rev. W. L. Showers officiating. Friends may call after 3 p.m. Thursday.

Burial will be in St. John Cemetery, 2901 Nameoki Road.

SIUE tuition hike 13%

Tuition increases of 13 percent for the Southern Illinois University System were approved last week by the SIU Board of Trustees.

The increases will be effective with the summer session at SIU-Carbondale and the fall quarter at SIU at Edwardsville.

Dr. James R. Buck, SIUE director of development and public affairs, said that even with the 13 percent increase in tuition, the total increase in tuition and fees for the coming year at SIU at Edwardsville will only approximate 10 1/2 percent.

Chancellor Kenneth A. Shaw explained to the board that the 13 percent tuition hike is expected to be necessary because of the prospect of a $3.3-million cut in the SIU System's operating budget for fiscal year 1982.

The Illinois Board of Higher Education (IBHE) has recommended a total operating budget of $181.3 million for the SIU System during the fiscal year that starts July 1. Included in that is a proposed 10 percent tuition hike.

Gov. Thompson's recommendation is $156 million for SIU, reflecting his bottom line 5.8 percent budget increase level statewide for higher education.

Chancellor Shaw said the extra three percent tuition hike would yield $623,000 at SIU's Carbondale and Edwardsville campuses, still leaving a $5.3 million shortfall between the IBHE's original budget proposal and the governor's recommendation.

Dr. Shaw said if final appropriations match the governor's recommended level, it will mean:

—Most of the new and expanded academic program support slated for next year at both campuses ($1.1 million) will be dropped;

—Payroll economies totaling $1.9 million;

—The SIU System will have to improve power and lighting efficiency to make up for a three percent ($213,000) cut in funding to meet utilities cost increases;

—Additional economies totaling $1.1 million will have to be realized to deal with the governor's recommended four percent slash in money the IBHE had recommended (an eight percent budget increase) for general price rises. Dr. Shaw said if inflation is more than eight percent next year, spending for non-personnel items will have to be cut even more sharply.

With the 13 percent increase, the rate for full-time undergraduate resident students will be increased from the current $615 to $696 per academic year at SIU-Edwardsville and from the current $622 to approximately $703 per academic year at SIU-Carbondale.

Rates for graduate students at SIUC are the same as for undergraduates. At SIUE, the current rate for full-time graduate students is $690; with the 13 percent increase, it will be $747 per academic year.

Tuition at the School of Dental Medicine will go from the current $1,116 per year to $1,260 per year.

At the School of Medicine, tuition will be increased from $2,250 per year to $2,542.50 per year.

$4 million CD grants to county; Quad-City area to get $841,650

Madison County Board Chairman, Nelson Hagnauer, has announced that Madison County has received an allocation of $4,022,000 in Community Development Block Grant funds from the Department of Housing and Urban Development for the 1981-82 program year.

This year, which will begin Oct. 1, 1981, will be the seventh year that the Community Development Program has been in existence. The program provides funding to cities and townships for physical development projects designed to upgrade low and moderate income areas.

Hagnauer indicated that over the past three years funds have been used for housing rehabilitation loans and grants, water and sewer service installation, surface drainage, park development and road and bridge construction as well as a variety of other projects.

Of the total grant, $841,650 has been assigned to cities and townships in the Quad-City area. Granite City received an allocation of $479,380, Madison $81,680 and Venice $54,290. The townships received a total of $226,300.

The projects for this area, which is designated as Section Two, received:

City of Madison — Madison NSA, Acquisition of Real Properties, $55,000; Parking Facilities, $12,680; Clearance Activities, $4,000; Relocation Payments and Assistance, $10,000; City of Granite City — Old Town-West Granite NSA-Street Improvements, $229,380; St. Elizabeth Restoration Area NSA-Street Improvements, $200,000; Street Improvements, $30,000; City of Venice — North Venice-West Madison, NSA, Public Facilities and Improvements, Senior Center, $54,290.

Nameoki Township — East Madison-Street Improvements, $10,030; Pedestrian Malls and Walkways, $10,000; Flood and Drainage Facilities, $10,000.

Nameoki Township — Miracle Manor-Bellemeor Neighborhood Street Improvements, $70,000; Pedestrian Malls and Walkways, $20,000.

Venice Township — Eagle Park NSA-Rehabilitation of Private Properties, $10,315; Chouteau Township — Water and Sewer Facilities, $58,925.

Village of Pontoon Beach — Water and Sewer Facilities, $37,030.

Week's vacation at SIUE

Students at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville will have a one-week vacation, March 22-29, between winter and spring quarters. Final exams for winter quarter begin March 17.

Several of the principal buildings at the Edwardsville campus will operate on a reduced schedule during the vacation period. For information concerning the operating hours of specific buildings, interested persons may call the University Information Center at 618-692-2739. Regular building hours and operations will resume March 30 at 7 a.m.

HIGHER TAXES?

VON DEE CRUSE, CANDIDATE FOR RE-ELECTION AS TAX ASSESSOR EXPOSES BUDGET STRUCTURE OF CURRENT MAYOR!

Within Mr. Cruse's brochure, which is currently being passed throughout the city, Mr. Von Dee Cruse states:

There is nothing in property valuation to cause total taxes to increase or decrease. Property tax totals are determined by expenditures of counties, municipalities and school districts. IF PROPERTY TAXES ARE INCREASED IT IS BECAUSE THE BUDGETS OF ONE OR ALL OF THESE LOCAL GOVERNMENTS INCREASE.!

As the above quote indicates, a member of the "Mayor's Team" explains why this city can meet any budget it so desires SIMPLY BY RAISING TAXES.

We can no longer afford the inefficient and excessive spending of this administration.

A NEW APPROACH FROM WARREN DECATUR

CANDIDATE FOR MAYOR

This is the first in a series of ads presenting Warren Decatur's comprehensive program for improving city government. Watch for more next week.

EXECUTIVE LEADERSHIP

The Mayor should meet and tour the city with department heads, conduct inspection programs, and prepare reports of city operations and problems on a regular basis. THIS IS NOT CURRENTLY DONE!

CITY COUNCIL

Currently aldermen come into meetings cold and have to find out on the floor what is being proposed and make an immediate decision. The Mayor should provide aldermen with information on issues prior to the Tuesday council meeting so that aldermen can make sound decisions. THIS IS NOT CURRENTLY DONE!

FINANCES

In the past aldermen have made muddled decisions on the simplest issues because they lacked sufficient financial information. The city needs to hire a qualified accountant to set up a system to provide the information necessary to make informed decisions. THIS IS NOT CURRENTLY DONE!

PERSONNEL

The city should consider adoption of the Civil Service Act to eliminate political patronage and nepotism. All city employees should be hired on the basis of qualifications. THIS IS NOT CURRENTLY DONE!

PLANNING AND ZONING

A long range plan of action to combat the present and developing urban blight and deterioration in the city should be developed. THIS IS NOT CURRENTLY BEING DONE!

PUBLIC SAFETY

A more rigorous fire and crime prevention program should be adopted. THIS IS NOT CURRENTLY BEING DONE!

INSPECTION

An orderly system of records and forms should be developed for the use of the City Inspector. A schedule of inspections should be established so that the Inspector is sure to cover all places subject to inspection the required number of times per year. THIS IS NOT CURRENTLY DONE!

Our city has a 14 million dollar budget. That represents tax money from your pocket to a large extent. You deserve the most for your money. It's time to run the city like a business. Make city government accountable to YOU, not to political machines.

Mueller cites long residency in Ward Two Zmuth E. Mueller, 70, a candidate for Venice Second Ward alderman, has cited his long residency in Ward Two and a thorough knowledge of the problems of the ward during his campaign for his first elected post.

He lives at 608 Washington Ave., where he has resided for the past 42 years, and is a widower having been married to the late Roberta Durr.

Mueller is an active member of the Venice Community Development Citizens' Committee. He was born in St. Jacob, Ill., but did attend elementary and high schools in Venice.

"I think that the people living on the south side of Broadway should be represented by a person living in this area and one who knows the people in this ward," Mueller said.

TRUCK IS STOLEN

The blue 1978 Dodge four-wheel drive pickup truck of Daniel Mull, 2436 Lincoln Ave., was stolen from the VFW Hall, 21st Street and Washington Avenue, between 9:30 and 11:40 p.m. Monday. The truck has white spoke wheels and five different colors of blue stripes on the sides.

Pack blue and gold banquet

Indians was the theme for the blue and gold banquet of Cub Pack 7, sponsored by St. Joseph Church, held in the church basement last week.

The invocation was given by Father Victor Chateauver, M.S.F., and after dinner entertainment was provided by the Kahok Dancers of Collinsville.

Totem poles and totems, made by the scouts, decorated the tables with arrangements of yellow daisies.

During the evening, a skit entitled, "Deer Hunting" was performed by Webelos, Clayton McKinney, Eric Markovich, Joey Kusmierczak and Tim Szymek.

Guests for the evening were Father Chateauver, Sister Mary Esther, Sister Claire Louise, Sister Mary Joachim and the families of the scouts.

Cubmaster Karl Markovich Sr., presented awards to Webelos Den One, Eric Markovich, showman badge and three year pin, Joey Kusmierczak, scientist and showman badges, and three year pin, Clayton McKinney, showman badge and two year pin and Tim Szymek, showman badge.

Den Two member, Tom Schmucke, gold arrow.

Den Three, Patrick Carney, Wolf badge, gold and silver arrows, Ernie Walker, Bear book, assistant denner and silver arrows, Stephen Line, silver arrow, David Malottki, Bear book and silver arrow, Charles Levy, Wolf badge and gold arrow.

The cubmaster announced the district pinewood derby will be held on March 21.

Speaker on 'middle years

Mid-life crisis. Empty nest syndrome. Wrinkles, greying hair and sagging bodies just waiting for the ravages of old age. Middle age is dreadful, right?

Not necessarily, according to the Rev. Trafford Maher, every stage of life has advantages and disadvantages, and the middle years are no exception. He will speak here March 24.

Dave Davis, director of pharmacy at St. Elizabeth Medical Center, this week said he laughs about being over 40. "There's no point in worrying about it," he says. "I can't change it."

Davis says a real disadvantage of the middle years is that "job options aren't as good as they are at age 25."

Companies often prefer to hire younger people recently graduated from college, instead of people in their late 40s or 50s who are closer to retirement age.

On the other hand, the middle years offer a few advantages, Davis says. "By this time we should have learned a few things and acquired some wisdom."

"Also, as children are growing up, you can give more time to yourself, my wife recently returned to college and completed her bachelor's degree."

In the belief that middle age doesn't have to be an unpleasant time of life, St. Elizabeth is presenting a community seminar on "Making the Most of the Middle Years" on Tuesday, FATHER TRAFFORD MAHER. Professor of education at St. Louis University, he will be the featured speaker at a seminar, "Making the Most of the Middle Years," here March 24.

March 24, at 7 p.m. in the multi-purpose room of the medical center. Featured speaker will be Father Maher, professor of education at St. Louis University.

He has an extensive background in education and human relations and has been recognized by civic, medical and educational organizations for his work. For reservations or more information about the seminar Quad-Cityans may call the SEMC public relations office at 798-3167.

Laclede Steel managers named

Robert S. Turner, president and chief executive officer of Laclede Steel Co., has announced a major reorganization of the firm's management structure.

The St. Louis-based firm has formed four business units organized around the company's basic product lines. Each unit will be headed by a general manager who will have cost and profit responsibility as well as responsibility for accomplishing the unit's strategic objectives.

Named general managers were: Ralph M. Cassell, primary and 14-inch mill products; Richard J. Maguire, 8 and 22-inch mill products; Joseph W. Hebenstreit, rod and wire products; and Robert E. Uhrig, tubular products.

In the area of manufacturing support services, Robert J. Galligan was named plant superintendent of maintenance; Kenneth A. Ogile, director of manufacturing services; and James L. Hubbard, director of technical services. Larry J. Schunbusch was named assistant to the vice president of operations.

LLOYD BAILEY

Incoming Fifth Ward Alderman Lloyd Bailey of Granite City is seeking another term in the April 7 election.

Bailey has resided in the Quad-Cities many years, after living in Goldsboro, N.C. and attending school there.

He retired in 1979 after 32 years as a milk truck driver for local dairies. He is presently working in the county treasurer's office.

Bailey was shop steward and committeeman for Teamsters Local 525 for 27 years. For several years, Bailey has been the Democratic precinct committeeman for Granite City Precinct Nine.

He served in the armed forces overseas for four years.

Bailey and his wife, Josephine, have two daughters and one son and they live at 2807 Roosevelt Ave.

JAKE VARADIAN

The independent candidate for alderman of the Fifth Ward in Granite City is Jake Varadian, a dental studies teacher at Frather Junior High School.

Varadian has lived in the Quad-City area all of his life. He received a bachelor of arts degree from Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

He is a member of St. Gregory Armenian Apostolic Church and is president of the Lincoln Place Athletic Club.

Varadian also holds membership in the Mexican Honorary Commission, the Granite City Democratic Club and the Lincoln Place Arbor Club. He is the Democratic precinct committeeman in Precinct 10.

"I want to be alderman of the Fifth Ward to bring equal representation for the people of our ward, whether they are residents of West Granite, Lincoln Place, downtown or Tri-City Park area," said Varadian.

He lives with his wife and two sons at 1744 Olive St.

Lake students to participate in heart drive

Students at Lake Elementary School will participate this year for the first time in Jump Rope for Heart, a national special event sponsored by the Illinois Association of Health, Physical Education and Recreation (IAHER) for benefit of the Heart Association.

The event will be held March 27 and will be coordinated by Stan Serwatka. Other Illinois schools and students from elementary to college level will be participating in more than 40 states from March 26 through April 2. March is National Physical Education and Sports Month, and the event has been endorsed by the Governor's Council on Health and Fitness.

Jump Rope for Heart will be conducted by school physical education teachers and students who organize rope-jumping competition. Members of six-student teams each jump rope, releasing each other when tiring, for a maximum of three hours.

Cash pledges collected from sponsors for each minute of their rope-jumping efforts contribute to Heart Association programs of research, to find better means of diagnosing and treating heart and blood vessel disease; public and professional education and community service projects, such as cardiopulmonary resuscitation training and blood pressure screening.

For the first time in the history of the three-year-old event, schools will be eligible for prizes, ranging from video tape cameras with recorders to gymnasium equipment. Students can win prizes which include T-shirts, jackets and warm-up suits.

WITNESS BURGLARY

While a neighbor watched, two men drove up to the apartment of Terry Waggoner, 2122 Lee Ave., entered the unlocked apartment and removed a portable television set, a trench coat and two inexpensive stereos. The men left in an older tan Buick with a dent in the left side. They were described as about 20 to 25 years old. Waggoner said he left his apartment unlocked for only 10 minutes while he went to a nearby restaurant.

Walton, Rockett face in Madison

BOOKER WALTON

Booker T. Walton, an alderman in Madison since 1948, is being challenged in his bid for alderman of the Fifth Ward this year by Charles Rockett.

Walton was born in Hilly Springs, Miss., and attended schools in Little Rock, Ark. He has resided in this area since 1923.

Retired now, Walton has worked at Commonwealth Steel and was the first minority deputy sheriff in Madison County.

He and his wife, the former Ada Lum, live at 909 Washington St., Madison. Walton has nine stepchildren.

He is a member of the Madison City Organization and the Madison County Police Association.

REV. CHARLES ROCKETT

Charles Rockett, 50, of 908 Madison St., in Madison, is the independent candidate for alderman of the Fifth Ward in Madison.

Rockett, who has lived in this area 47 years, graduated from Dunbar High School and attended Sam Houston College in Austin, Tex.

He also attended Central Bible College in St. Louis, the American Bible Institute and Brooks Bible College.

Rockett is employed as a service clerk at Consolidated Aluminum.

Rockett, associate minister of Mt. Nebo Baptist Church, also is president of the prayer group and a member of the male chorus and the senior choir of that church.

He is seeking election, he said, because, "since my childhood, there has not been much improvement in the community. Senior citizens facilities and housing are badly needed in Ward Five and housing and jobs are badly needed in the city as a whole. Youth activities are needed to provide our youth with wholesome recreation. Police and community maintenance are inadequate and need improving," he contends.

Coroner's jury unable to find reason for prisoner's death

A coroner's jury in Granite City Friday was unable to make a determination of the cause of death of Brian K. Townzen, 20, Edwardsville, who stopped breathing in a Granite City Police Department jail cell Feb. 5 and subsequently died.

A six-man coroner's jury heard evidence at 2 p.m. Friday at Mercer Mortuary and were told by Madison County Deputy Coroner Dick Mizell that an autopsy indicated that Mr. Townzen died as the result of aspiration of gastro (stomach) contents into his lungs, which blocked his breathing.

Blood taken from his body three hours after death showed a content of .069, nearly seven times greater than the .010 which is considered legally intoxicated, Mizell said.

However, body liquids were sent to a laboratory in Chicago and by the time the samples reached that lab, the alcohol levels had depleted. Also, the Chicago report showed no evidence of drugs in the system while hospital reports indicate doctors did use drugs in attempts to revive Mr. Townzen.

Since Mr. Townzen had no prior history of seizures or medical abnormalities which could have accounted for his sudden death, the jury, composed of three medical experts and three laymen, was unable to reach a determination of the reason for the death.

Policemen testified that Mr. Townzen was found unconscious near Edwardsville Road and 20th Street and could not be awakened, so he was placed in a jail cell and was checked every half hour until it was discovered he was not breathing.

He then was rushed to St. Elizabeth Medical Center where he was pronounced dead.

Bethel Church plans banquet and pageant

Bethel African Methodist Episcopal Church will present its annual banquet and pageant at the Venice Recreation Center in Venice, on Saturday, March 21, from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m.

The theme for this year's event is "Living By Faith" and will feature guest speaker Bernard Long, principal of Blair School in Madison.

Charles "Little man" Wright's Trio will provide music for the program and Mrs. Solastine Griggs Johnson will be the guest soloist.

Four young women, Rose Clay, LaVonda Fletcher, Rosette Harmon and Sonya McHenry, will compete for the title and crown of queen of the pageant.

Mrs. Medora Garrett will conduct and direct the coronation and Mrs. Janet Fletcher is serving as general chairman of the affair.

The Rev. Alfred E. Johnson is pastor of the church and he extends an invitation to the public to attend.

TAX REDUCTION
President Johnson signed a bill on Feb. 26, 1964, reducing personal and corporate income taxes.

Competing April 7 in Venice Ward 3

JOHN ERVIN

John R. Ervin, 45, faces opposition from Silver Franklin in his bid for reelection as Third Ward alderman in Venice.

Ervin has resided in Venice most of his life locally, receiving his education at Venice High School. He is employed at Venice-Lincoln Technical Center as a custodian. He formerly worked at General Steel Industries.

Ervin is a member of the Economic Opportunities Commission's board of directors, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) and the Building and Service Union Local 96.

He and his wife, Juanita, have three children. They live at 1212 Logan St., Venice.

Ervin's objective in seeking re-election is "to continue to work with the city administration for future development of Venice; to assist the mayor on projects now in action in Venice, and to insure that the residents of Ward Three continue getting the best of service and consideration."

SILVER FRANKLIN

The independent candidate for Third Ward Alderman in Venice is Silver Franklin, 25. Franklin, who lives at 1105 Calhoun St., Venice, attended Dunbar School and Madison High School. He also studied at Bailey Technical School.

He is employed by Xerox Corp. as a senior technical representative. Franklin is secretary-treasurer of the Venice Jaycees, and is a member of the NAACP. He also is active in the Tri-Cities Area United Way.

"I think it is past time for a change," said Franklin, which is why he is seeking election.

ARRESTS IN FIGHT
James D. Jackson, 19, of 2254 Lee Ave., and Stephen D. Miller, 20, of 1639 Seventh St., Madison, were charged with criminal damage to property after they allegedly broke a 3 by 5 foot window near the entrance to Tri-Mor Bowl, 3701 Nameoki Road, during a fight at 11:55 p.m. Monday. They were released on $35 cash bond each.

May raise Center fee at SIUE

A proposed $3 across-the-board increase in the University Center Fee at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville was discussed last week by the SIUE Board of Trustees. Currently, the fee for full-time students is $32.50 per quarter.

The proposal will be considered further at the April 9 meeting of the Board in Edwardsville. If approved, the fee increase will be effective summer quarter.

University officers said the Center operation is affected by increases in salaries and wages and by inflationary increases in the costs of goods, services and utilities. Additionally, the Center will be affected during the coming year by a reduction in tuition revenues previously retained to support it. During Fiscal Year 1982, approximately $82,000 in retained tuition funds will be eliminated from the Center's operating budget.

Operating costs of the Center are expected to increase by nearly $125,000 next year. University officers estimate the proposed $3 fee increase would generate approximately $93,000, partially offsetting inflationary increases and the reduction in retained tuition funds. They said the remaining difference between income and expenses would be offset through increasing the efficiency of Center operations, effecting economies or cutbacks in various operations, and applying surplus funds.

Because of unexpected increases in enrollments this year, the Center expects to complete the current year with a surplus of about $27,000, which will be applied to operating costs next year.

Darold Talley's name daughter Rebecca

Mr. and Mrs. Darold R. Talley, 2753 Sunset Drive, have selected the name of Rebecca Lynn for their second child.

The infant was born March 5 at Jewish Hospital, St. Louis. She weighed seven pounds, six and a half ounces. She has a 4-year-old brother Jason.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Wallace and Mr. and Mrs. Darold E. Talley, all of Granite City.

The mother is the former Phyllis Wallace.

Trust bank to host attorneys at bar meet

Drew Karandjeff, president, has announced that Granite City Trust and Savings Bank will host a joint dinner meeting of the Madison County Bar Association and the Tri-City Bar Association at the Sunset Hills Country Club at 7 p.m. today.

The guest speaker will be the Illinois Attorney General, Tyrone C. Fahner. Approximately 200 Madison County attorneys are expected to attend as well as area Circuit Court judges and associate judges. Judge William Beatty of the U.S. District Court will also be in attendance.

On July 29, 1980, Tyrone C. Fahner became the 37th attorney general of the state of Illinois, on appointment by Governor James R. Thompson.

Fahner served as director of the Illinois Department of Law Enforcement from 1977 to 1979. At the time of his appointment as attorney general he was a member of the Illinois Racing Board. General Fahner served as an assistant United States attorney for the Northern District of Illinois from 1971 to 1975, serving as chief of the Official Corruption Section from 1974 to 1975 and as chief of the Consumer Fraud and Civil Rights and Salzman from 1975 to 1977.

TYRONE FAHNER

sonally tried cases involving financial crimes in the areas of tax, bankruptcy, securities and consumer fraud, as well as crimes of a general nature.

Attorney General Fahner also has many years of experience in the private practice of law. From January of 1979 to July of 1980 he was a partner in the law firm of Mayer, Brown and Platt in Chicago. Previously, in private practice he was a partner in the Chicago law firm of Freeman, Roth, Freeman and Salzman from 1975 to 1977.

Bill would create foster care boards

Rep. Wyvett H. Young (D-East St. Louis) will co-sponsor legislation proposing citizen boards of review foster care of children on a regular basis throughout the state.

Illinois Action for Foster Children, a coalition formed in 1977 by such groups as the League of Women Voters and state Congresses of Parents and Teachers concerned with quality of child welfare, suggested the need for such legislation.

The boards would oversee handling of nearly 12,000 children in publicly-sponsored programs and will include volunteers with experience in child welfare or public members with special training in the field. Rep. Young explains they would advise juvenile courts on their decisions concerning the handling, continuation or final disposition of each case. They also would issue reports to the legislature highlighting problems in state, local, public or private foster care programs.

"This program," Rep. Young says, "is similar to plans implemented in several other states. The effectiveness of a citizen review system has been demonstrated in reducing the number of placements, reducing length-of-stay in temporary foster care, and in finding more permanent homes for the thousands of children needing this type of substitute care."

The 57th District legislator points out that the proposed legislation is consistent with the new federal Adoption Assistance and Child Welfare Act of 1980. The League of Women Voters and University of Illinois has conducted a study of such board systems in four states and has recommended adoption of the concept in Illinois.

NEIL ESKELIN

Neil Eskelin to speak at First Assembly

Neil Eskelin, author of the book, "Yes Yes Living In A No No World," will speak at First Assembly of God Church, 24th Street and Madison Avenue, at 6:30 p.m. on Sunday, according to the Rev. C. Dale Edwards, minister.

Eskelin is director of development at Evangel College, Springfield, Mo., a liberal arts college with an enrollment over 1,700. He has traveled over one million miles and has spoken to over one million people. He is a frequent guest on national television.

He received his MA in communications from Ohio State University and has authored more than 20 books published by Prentice-Hall, Mid-America Research, and Logos-Haven.

Eskelin has presented his message to more than 3,000 audiences at conferences, churches, and business organizations. He has served on the Board of Governors of the International Platform Association and is president of the Springfield, (Mo.) Southeast Rotary Club.

TRUCK RAMS AUTO

A disorderly conduct charge was filed at 11:45 p.m. Tuesday against David R. Cooper, 29, of 2720 Iowa St. for allegedly using his pickup truck to ram a Highland man's auto four times at the Jack-in-the-Box Restaurant, 3330 Nameoki Road. He was released after posting $35 bail.

County rejects hiring CETA workers for sheriff's office

By JUDY TAPLIN

The Madison County board voted 17-2 Wednesday to hire no employees to replace 34 CETA workers the county will lose April 3. Fifteen of the CETA employees are in the sheriff's department.

Finance committee chairman William Little, Alton, said the county board did not have the funds needed for the hirings. (Fifteen replacements for the sheriff's department would cost the county $165,000.)

"Today we're going to have to bite the bullet," county board chairman Nelson Hagnauer, Granite City, told the board. He said he has seen numerous annexations reduce the area patrolled by the sheriff's department but has seen no corresponding reduction in personnel.

A loss of 15 employees will represent an 11.7 percent decrease in the sheriff's department. Ten of the 15 work in the jail; five have patrol duty.

Sheriff Emil Toffant, in a letter to Little earlier this month, said loss of 15 employees "would drastically handicap the law enforcement efforts throughout the county."

The sheriff's department had suggested that, if the county board could not see fit to hire 15 employees, it should consider hiring a portion of that number.

This, too, was ruled out by the county board's action Wednesday.

The CETA workers in the sheriff's department serve as dispatcher aides, control room operators and perform other miscellaneous services.

Toffant, in his letter, said the jobs in the jail must be performed. Therefore, it appears that the sheriff's department's only recourse is to now reduce the number of deputies on patrol.

Wednesday, county board member Alan Dunstan, Troy, said the sheriff's department would not be acceptable to his rural district.

James Slacup, agreed. Population has increased 74 percent in his district. "We need more patrol, not less," he said.

Dunstan, without success, proposed that the county board agree to fund four or five of the CETA positions in the sheriff's department.

The other 19 CETA jobs which will be eliminated by the federal government's fund cut are scattered among various other county offices, including the circuit clerk's office.

Burglary at Hileman home

Items valued at more than $2,150 were stolen from the home of Charles and Jean Hileman, 2330 Lynch Ave., between 11:10 a.m. and 12:45 p.m. Wednesday after glass in a door was broken to gain entry.

Stolen were a silverware set worth $2,000, four necklaces worth $100 and 15 sets of earrings valued at $50. Also missing is a box of "buffalo" nickles of undetermined value.

The silverware and the nickles were stolen from a trunk in the family room and the jewelry were taken from a jewelry box in a bedroom. Mr. Hileman is a former assistant fire chief of Granite City.

APARTMENT LOOTED

Spilling flour on the living room and kitchen floors Tuesday evening at the apartment of Henry McWhorter, 2724 Harvey Place, a burglar ransacked several rooms and took an undetermined number of articles. An automatic rifle removed from the apartment by the intruder was found outside the front door.

Canada rich in minerals

Canada is the world's leading producer of nickel, zinc and asbestos and second or third in gold, uranium, molybdenum, titanium, gypsum, potash, silver, sulfur, cobalt, platinum metals and lead.

Canada also ranks high in output of iron ore, magnesium, copper, barites and several other minerals.

Acts 12:5... "Peter therefore was kept in prison: his prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him."

Herod the king had already killed James the brother of John. Now Peter was imprisoned and death was sure to be his fate.

The time had come for serious prayer. The church dropped all formalities. God's people began to cry out. This was not the time for choosing the right word, nor for proper inflection of the voice. Peter would die! The church prayed without ceasing unto God!

Perhaps you are in a crisis situation. Sick, afflicted, out of work, marriage on the rocks, etc. If so, then it's time to pray. Tell God what you need out of your heart. If you are sincere that sincerity will move God quicker than any words your lips can form.

God saw to it that Peter was set free. God will answer your prayers too. You don't need experience to pray. Just a need that only God can supply.

Pray, Today.

Rail relocation meeting March 26

The St. Louis Metro Area Rail Gateway Enterprise (MARGE) is hosting a public meeting in the Granite City Township Hall, 21st Street and Delmar Avenue, at 7 p.m. Thursday, March 26, to present the latest update on the plans to remove rail yards and facilities from the East St. Louis riverfront and to streamline rail traffic through the St. Louis metropolitan area.

The planning is considered important to the Quad-City area, since the Madison rail yard may become a major yard and rail traffic through this area "may increase significantly, underlining the need for more overpasses and underpasses, local officials have indicated.

Community concerns to be discussed at the March 26 public meeting include relocation of displaced families and businesses, community-rail conflicts, noise reduction and safety.

The meeting is the last of six public meetings in the current round of planning. Three previous rounds of meetings were held as planning progressed.

From 7 to 8 p.m. is reserved for review and explanation of the drawings and exhibits related to yard relocation and redevelopment and the answering of questions from the audience.

From 8 to 9 p.m., a presentation is scheduled on the status and progress of the MARGE project.

3 vie for 2 Venice Park seats

VALETA BAUDER

Incumbent Venice Park Board member Valeta Bauder is seeking a second term in a three-way race in the April 7 balloting.

Mrs. Bauder has lived in the Quad-City area 33 years. She was born in San Jose, Calif., and attended Campbell High School in Campbell, Calif., San Jose State University and Healds Business College in San Jose.

She is secretary of the Venice Crippled Children's Investigating Committee, a member of Alpha Iota Sorority and Venice Democratic Women's Club, and is precinct committeewoman in the First Ward in Venice.

Mrs. Bauder is seeking public office "to maintain a higher quality of park youth programs and programs for senior citizens of Venice."

She also said, "I am interested in the beautification of the park grounds, and buildings." During my past six year term I have contributed my time to the beautification of the park grounds and gardens by ordering trees, shrubs, bulbs and flowers for planting.

She lives with her husband and son at 708 Third St., Venice.

JOAN SILAS

Joan Silas, 1221 Market St., Venice, is seeking a second term as Venice Park Board Commissioner for a six-year term.

Mrs. Silas is a lifelong resident of Venice. She and her husband, Howard, have two children.

She is a Madison High School graduate and an employee of Stix, Baer and Fuller.

Active in the Mt. Nebo Baptist Church, Mrs. Silas is a member of the Madison Branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), the Lamp Lighters Association and the Newport Homecoming Association.

She has served as a Cub Scout den mother, a Brownie leader and a Girl Scout leader.

JOHN H. WILLIAMS

The Rev. John Henry Williams is one of three candidates seeking two six-year positions on the Venice Park Board in the April 7 election.

Williams was born on Kerr Island, Venice, and graduated from Madison High School in 1966. He attended Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville for three years and is now attending State Community College in E. St. Louis.

He is employed as an operator for the Metro-East Sanitary District and is associate minister of the New Salem Baptist Church. He also is superintendent of Sunday School at the church.

Rev. Williams is junior ward of New Hope Lodge 22 of Prince Hall, Free Accepted Ancient York Rite Masons.

He is program chairman for both the NAACP and the Venice Independent League. Williams was formerly chairman of the Venice Community League.

He and his wife, Emma, have five children and live at 619 Washington St., Venice. I am seeking the office of Venice Park Commissioner for several reasons. Through my past and present experience in the community involvement, I feel I will be a great asset to the park district," said Rev. Williams.

He feels he will be a "fighter and a servant for the betterment of the park district" and that, "the present park board is out of touch with the senior citizens, middle-aged and youth."

1971 GC grads seek classmates

The 1971 graduating class from Granite City High School is planning a 10-year class reunion to be held on April 15 and are seeking addresses of some of the classmates.

According to the chairman, Mrs. Jan Belshe and Don Harris, the event will be held at St. Raymond's Catholic Church hall in St. Louis.

Letters have been sent to the class members where addresses were available but there are many unknown mailing addresses, which the committee wishes to contact, the chairman noted. Those who have not been contacted are advised to contact or call Mrs. Belshe at 355-7716 or Harris at 931-4938 to make reservations for the affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Burcham

Johnson-Burcham

Miss Tracey Burcham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Landers of Granite City, and Forrest "Frosty" Johnson, son of Mrs. George W. Johnson of Minneapolis, Minn., exchanged wedding vows on Feb. 14 in a ceremony performed at the home of the bride's parents. The Rev. David Curtis officiated at the single ring ceremony at 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a beige street length dress and held a bouquet of salmon color carnations accented with white rose buds. She also wore sprigs of baby's breath in her hair. Miss Louise Jones served as maid of honor. She selected a black street length dress enhanced with a beige trim.

Carl Turner of Granite City attended the groom as best man.

Noell Landers and Kathy Burcham, sisters of the bride, served as flower girl and guest book attendant, respectively.

A reception was held following the ceremony at the Landers home attended by 30 guests.

The newlywed Mr. and Mrs. Johnson are residing in Granite City.

Sandra Robinson and Terry Lindsay

Lindsay-Robinson

The engagement of Miss Sandra Kay Robinson and Terry Keith Lindsay is being announced by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Robinson of Granite City.

Parents of the prospective groom are Mr. and Mrs. James Lindsay, also of Granite City.

Miss Robinson graduated from Granite City South in 1979, and graduated from Bryan Institute in 1980 and is now a dental assistant.

Her fiancé was graduated in 1979 from Granite City South and is employed with the Granite City Street Dept.

Tenative wedding plans are being completed for a Nov. 6 wedding at Concordia Lutheran Church.

Gardenaires retain officers

Mrs. Richard Kerch entertained the members of the Gardenaires Garden Club at a noon luncheon meeting, last week, and after lunch the president, Mrs. Leo Schank, conducted the business meeting.

Members answered roll call by naming an "All American Selection", either vegetable or floral.

During the meeting the members voted to participate in the Chamber of Commerce annual Clean Up and Paint Up Week, which is to be conducted the last week of April. The club agreed to spend a day during that week cleaning and trimming the shrubs at the entrance to the Madison County Bicycle and Nature Trail, located on Lake Drive.

It was noted the annual meeting of District V, of the Garden Clubs of Illinois, will be held March 26 and reservations were made for seven members to attend this meeting which will be held in Cahokia. In lieu of a program, annual reports were read by the club chairman, and the officers.

To conclude the business segment, an election of officers was held. The following were re-elected to serve a second term: president, Mrs. Schank, vice-president Mrs. Kerch, secretary, Mrs. C. E. Eads, and treasurer, Mrs. Mary Kristian. They were installed by Mrs. Charles Kohl.

Mrs. Roy Hornum invited the club to hold their April meeting at her home in Edwardsville on April 9, when plans for the coming year will be discussed.

Also attending were Mrs. Jerry Arbeiter, Mrs. William Long and Mrs. Andrew Gonzalez, and Mrs. Robert Hintz.

Civil Service chapter topic

Mary Lou Rheinheimer, a representative of the Civil Service Division of the Federal Government (IRS), addressed members of the Madison High School Chapter of Future Secretaries at its March meeting.

The highlight of her speech stressed making application for the Civil Service test by completing and returning proper forms; if one can not meet on the regular scheduled testing date call and arrange another date; because of the rating system used by the government the applicant should do the best they can on the test; and finally, take the test even though you may not plan to enter government work after graduation.

She also pointed out that many young people start as clerks and then cross over into another area in order to move into higher paying jobs. A pay scale was given to each student and the speaker explained how one can advance from a $7,000 job in a three-year period by proper attention and application using the cross-over system.

Other special guests included Carol Bailey from IRS and Helen Gieselmann from the Tri-City Chapter of National Secretaries Association.

A Future Secretaries seminar is to be held at Elgin Community College in Elgin, Ill., on Saturday, April 11, on the topic, Focus-Success-Ambition, it was announced.

Busy month for Jr. Troop 709

Junior Girl Scout Troop 709 have been busy with various activities throughout the month. The most recent event was participation in the parade held in Granite City marking the 69th anniversary of Girl Scouting.

Last week the troop visited the main Fire Station on 23rd Street and Madison Avenue and were taken on a tour of the facility as a community project.

The troop also participated in the annual Thinking Day affair held this year at the Granite City Township Hall. They also prepared a window display in Gilk's Department Store during the nation wide observance of Girl Scout Week.

At a regular meeting, the scouts attended an instruction session given by two EMT personnel in conjunction with work on their First Aid badge and Home Safety badge.

Members of the troop are, Angela Adams, Wendy Burris, Christina Danford, Jean Hahne, Patricia Hahne, April Hughes, Charlene Knox, Julie Lewis, Veronica Morris, Kim Rushing, Melissa Segedy, Marianne Sloops, Cassandra Tidwell, William S. Tessa Householder and Krista Angle. Mrs. Joan Stark and Mrs. Sharon Morris are co-leaders of the troop and are assisted by Charlayne Asbeck and Evelyn Doyle.

Mrs. McCauley is Bay View hostess

Mrs. Lawrence McCauley served a dessert luncheon to members of Bay View Reading Club at a meeting held in her home last week.

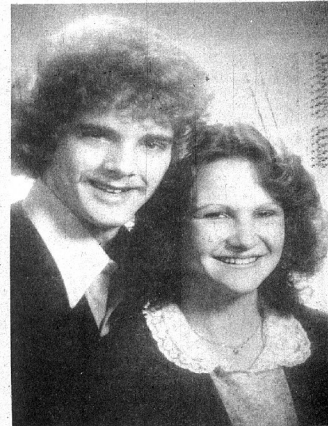

Mrs. Arthur Bueche, president, conducted the business session. The nominating committee gave a report on officers for the forthcoming year.

Program chairman, Mrs. Dale Rea introduced Mrs. Miller who reviewed the book, "Scruples" by Judith Krantz.

Members answered roll call with current events and repeated the club ritual to close the meeting.

Others attending were Mesdames E. M. Arnold, Wayne Carlisle, Herman Huxel, Harold Jansen, Walter Klein, A. E. Krumm, Chris Louis, James Stuart, Misses Hazel Towery, Lily Dod and Frances Lynch.

Gabriel Shrine elects

An election of officers for the ensuing year was held at the March meeting of Gabriel Shrine 78, Order of the White Shrine of Jerusalem, with Mary Bilbrey, worthy high priestess, and Earl French, watchman of the shepherds, officiating.

Supreme officers, elective and appointed, past worthy high priestess and past watchman of the shepherds, were escorted and introduced.

Fern Miller of Collinsville, and Irene Little from Gaspar Shrine, and Henry Asher served as pro tem officers for the evening.

A public installation ceremony will be held on Monday at the Masonic Temple, it was noted.

Annual reports were given by officers and Mrs. Bilbrey, who summarized the past year of activities.

She gave each officer a small ceramic evergreen dish and read an appropriate poem for the presentation.

Those reported to be ill were Sadie Jones, Emma Gobbie, Clara Harbig, Karmyn Edmonds, Bonnie Fisher, Delbert McKissick, Clara Jones and Lera Watson.

The supreme shrine session will be held in Niagara Falls, N.Y., in May, according to Mrs. Bilbrey.

A social hour followed the meeting and refreshments were served.

BACH BORN

Opti-Mrs. honor birthday members

Birthday recognition was accorded to Mrs. Helen Wyman, Mrs. Mildred Branding and Mrs. Gladys Pape, by members of the Noon-Day Opti-Mrs. Club at a luncheon meeting on Tuesday held at Charlie's Restaurant.

Hostesses for the day were Wyman, Branding, Bickel, Catherine Michel, Linda Irwin, Ertha Johnson and Jo Meyer.

Mrs. Bickel read a poem of thanks prior to the luncheon which was attended by 20 members and one guest.

Mrs. Gladys Pape, the retiring president, opened the business segment and Mrs. Jane Giese led the Opti-Mrs. Creed.

The president welcomed everyone and introduced the guests, Mrs. Catherine Wittenborn, who later became a member.

Mrs. Pape then turned the meeting over to the newly installed president, Mrs. Giese. She extended appreciation to the committee, who arranged her installation party.

After the meeting games were played and prizes awarded to Mrs. Veil, Mrs. Ella Odum, Mrs. Helen Todd and Mrs. Elsie Branding.

DeMolays attend ritual weekend

Four members of the James Stuart Chapter, Order of DeMolay, Neal Mize, Ralph McKinney Jr., David Corbett and Jimmy A. Stuart, attended a DeMolay ritual weekend at Decatur, Ill., on Tuesday.

Champion certificates were awarded to Neal Mize for second preceptor and to Ralph McKinney Jr., for fifth preceptor. The other local participants received honorable mention certificates.

Others attending the session were advisors, Ellis Hackney, Ralph McKinney Sr., and Jimmy E. Stuart, and Mother's Club members, Charlotte Mize, Barbara McKinney and Mary Stuart.

Mize and McKinney are now eligible to participate in the Great Lakes Ritual competition to be held in Chicago this spring.

REVIVAL SERVICES
AT BETHEL CHURCH
Revival services started Wednesday at Bethel Chapel Pentecostal Church, 25th Street and Ohio Avenue, and will continue through Sunday, March 22.

The singing Davis Family from Oklahoma presents the gospel in song and sermon each evening at 7:30, according to the Rev. Clifton Galther, host pastor.

Rev. Galther extends an invitation to the public to attend each night.

Earliest records on bamboo slips
The earliest Chinese records, long before the invention of paper in the Second century B.C., were written on slips of green bamboo. It's easy to scratch or incise bamboo's smooth skin, unique in the plant kingdom. Bamboo books were made by stringing slips together with silk or ox sinew.

Golden anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Lindner

Mr. and Mrs. John Earl Lindner, 2828 Cayuga St., were guests of honor at a reception given by their children, Ray Lindner and Mr. and Mrs. Edward (Wilma) Manogian, in observance of their 50th wedding anniversary.

Guests were received at the party held at the Elks Lodge restaurant.

Mr. Lindner and his wife, the former Geneva F. Pettiford, were married on Feb. 17, 1931, in Granite City.

Mr. Lindner worked in outside construction for many years and retired from the Granite City Street Department.

Candelabra holding burning tapers and an arrangement of yellow and white flowers centered the main table. A tiered cake decorated with yellow and white frosted roses and topped with gold bells adorned the serving table.

A champagne buffet dinner was served to 80 guests.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Mercer, Edwardsville, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Moore, Flora, Ill. The honorees also received a telephone call from Mr. and Mrs. George Sturman of Phoenix, Ariz., expressing congratulations.

Brownies mark anniversary

Brownie Girl Scout Troop 538 of Madison celebrated the anniversary of Girl Scouting with a history review of the scouting program, presented at a weekly meeting held at Harris School.

The troop later assembled on the playground to launch helium balloons which contained messages entitled, "happy Girl Scout week."

A friendship circle was made and all the Brownies participated in a song fest.

Each scout received a cupcake topped with a candle during the refreshment hour.

Those present were Nicole Avila, Mery Cuevas, Amanda Dollar, Nicole Coleman, Nina and Tina Galt, Theresa Hampl, Nicole Huniak, Charlotte Johnson, Denise Lawrence, Christi Johnson, Susan Maracchino, Tami Lawrence, Holly Messmore, Stephanie North.

Also Bobbie Pieper, Shelley Segers, Melanie Skoklo, Danielle Snell, Sharon Stacey, Deanna Williams, Valeria Willis, Melva Willman, Laura Zeisset, Mrs. Jackie Snell, leader and guest, Mrs. Marie McKinney and Carrie McKinney.

The infant has been named Blake Alexander. He weighed eight pounds, 13 ounces.

The couple has two other sons, James Jr., 8 years old, and Corey Andrew, 1½ years.

Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Howard Thebeau of Madison. Mrs. Laurene Thebeau of Granite City is the maternal great-grandmother.

The paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Willis Shepard of Granite City. Mrs. Katherine Koch of Chicago is the paternal great-grandmother.

H&R BLOCK TAX TEST

Question No. 1

It is too late to claim a deduction or credit overlooked on a 1977 tax return.

☐ True ☐ False

If you know about extending a tax return, you probably know the answer. If you don't, maybe you need H&R Block. Because H&R Block knows the law, they might not know. You can extend a tax return for overlooked deductions and credits up to three years after the filing date. So the answer to the question is FALSE.

Ganzer-Moore

The wedding of Mrs. Jennifer Moore and Larry Ganzer was solemnized on March 14 at the Church of Christ in Old Ripley, Ill.

Officiating at the 4 o'clock afternoon ceremony was the Rev. Harold Kast, of Fenton, Mo., a brother-in-law of the groom.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Ranft of Granite City. Parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Joy Ganzer, reside in Old Ripley.

Attending the couple were Mrs. Lorain Ranft Carter of Springfield, Mo., a sister of the bride, and Leroy Ganzer of Sorento, Ill., the groom's brother.

Immediately following the wedding a dinner and reception was held at Michael's Restaurant in Highland.

Guests attending included Scott Moore, the bride's son, Mrs. Clara Kelly, the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Doris Bachteler and Mr. and Mrs. Ranft, all of Granite City.

Also, Mr. and Mrs. Ganzer, parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Ganzer and daughters, Jennifer and Beth Ann of Sorento, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Slager and children, Christy and Jason of Kalamazoo, Mich., Rev. and Mrs. Kast and children, Kana, Kevin and Michael and Mrs. Blanch Bowers.

The newlywed couple is residing in Granite City.

Couple announces second child

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Butkovich, 117 Briarcliff Drive, are announcing the birth of their second child, a boy, on March 10 at Jewish Hospital, St. Louis.

They selected the name of Brandon Lee for the new arrival who weighed seven pounds, 13 ounces.

The infant has a 3-year sister, Beth Ann Butkovich. Grandparents include Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Britton and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Butkovich, all of Granite City. Great-grandparents are Mrs. Erna Hamilos of Granite City, and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Britton of Cherryville, Mo.

SHARON JEAN SCHWENDEMAN, new Missouri-Mrs. America.

Chosen as Mrs. Missouri

The Missouri-Mrs. America titleholder for 1981 will be Sharon Jean Schwendemann. Tri-state competition was held in the Wichita, Kan., Hilton Hotel this month.

Judging was based on poise, beauty, personality and the ability to converse fluently and to speak before an audience on the individual's views of the contemporary woman.

Mrs. Schwendemann spoke on the importance of "development of inner beauty in women." Her comments stressed the role of communication in bringing families together.

Mr. Schwendemann has worked in promotion and public relations in St. Louis and also has done professional fashion modeling and hair modeling. She is an elementary mathematics teacher in the Malden R-1 schools and also works for the KDEK radio station as a staff announcer.

A graduate of Southeast Missouri State University with a bachelor degree in elementary education and certification in learning disabilities and music education, she has received an advanced teaching degree in religious education from North Tennessee Bible Institute.

Currently, she is enrolled in the Broadcast Center of America, Clayton campus, acquiring a degree in broadcast journalism and broadcast performance. Her future plans include further work in electronic communications.

Her husband is a mathematics teacher for the Dexter R-1 school system. They have lived in Dexter for seven of their nine years of marriage.

Mrs. Schwendemann was sponsored by the Broadcast Center of America-Clayton. She is the daughter-in-law of Richard and Shirley Schwendemann of Granite City. She commends the pastor of the Faith and Love Fellowship of Dexter, the Rev. Dan Craig, for teaching her to be "all that I can be, and to be the best I can be that I might honor my God."

Emerson PTA carnival set

Emerson School PTA will sponsor a school carnival on Friday, March 20, from 5 to 8:30 p.m. at the school, featuring games, grab bags, lollipop tree, soda walk, fortune tellers, wacky hospital and other games.

Admission to the fun project is free but there is a 20-cent fee for each game. Pizza, soda and popcorn also will be sold during the carnival, according to William Sternberg, PTA president.

The president announced there will be a mostaccioli dinner on Friday, May 1, at the Granite City Township Hall under the auspices of the school PTA Unit.

The March meeting convened in the school gymnasium and entertainment was provided by the third, fourth, fifth and sixth graders. They performed dancing routines in square dance and disco led by Norman Grote, physical education teacher.

New officers to serve for the 1981-82 year were elected and include Sharon Melton as president, Lillie Paul, vice-president, Karen Brown, secretary and Carol Funkhouser, treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. Stone names son Justin

Mr. and Mrs. Steven Stone, 103 Sumner, Collinsville, have selected the name of Justin Richard for their first child, born on March 16 at Oliver Anderson Hospital in Maryville.

The new arrival weighed six pounds, four and one half ounces.

Grandparents include Mrs. Lulu Youngman and the late Donald Richard Youngman of Granite City, Don Stone, St. Louis and Mrs. Rose Underwood of Collinsville.

Prairie Promenade at country club

A country western theme and decor will be featured at the Prairie Promenade to be hosted by the Women's Division of the Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce on Saturday, April 11, at Sunset Hills Country Club.

Entertainment will be provided by the Checkerboard Squares followed by dancing to the music of Wayne Scannell's orchestra.

"The Casuals."

A social hour with a cash bar will open at 6 p.m. and a special Texas style buffet will be served at 7 p.m. Tickets costing $17.50 per person may be purchased from the Chamber office at 1831 Delmar Ave. and reservations must be made no later than April 9. For more information those interested are advised to call the Chamber office at 878-6400, the chairman announce.

Those serving as chairman of various committees for the annual social event include, Jeanette Scannell, entertainment, Edith Ross, co-chairman, Shirley Fountain, general chairman, Shirley Adams and Jacquie DeWitt, publicity, Mary Matoseian and Mary Dorn, program, Bev Partney, decoration, and Mary Jessee and Tina Thomas, entertainment. Mrs. Bonnie Goldenberg is president of the Women's Division.

All decorating motifs in the dining room and in the table appointments will be in keeping with the country western theme, the chairmen added.

Those who plan on going to the dinner dance are invited to dress in a country western attire but it is not a requirement to attend.

Prizes will be awarded in the first, second and third place category for the best dressed couple in country western costumes. Many other prizes will be awarded during the evening, it was noted.

National VFW Auxiliary president to visit area

Mrs. Jeannette Frank, of Two Rivers, Wis., national president of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars, will make her official visit to Illinois, April 1 through April 4, according to Lou Lensen, chairman of the tour.

The tentative schedule for Mrs. Frank includes arrival at St. Louis airport on Wednesday, April 1, with visits set for John Cochran Hospital, St. Louis and lunch at Sugarloaf Memorial Post 6388 in Duplo.

Following the luncheon a tour is planned for Our Lady of Snows, Belleville, with a reception at Litchfield Post 3912, served by the auxiliary of the State President Carolyn Gorin.

Thursday the entourage will arrive in Springfield for visits to Lincoln's home, Lincoln's tomb, the governor's mansion, and state capitol where a press conference will be held.

The evening will be spent at the Sheraton O'Hare in Rosemont, Ill., and on Friday the group will attend a council meeting at 1 p.m. During Friday evening a social with district presidents is planned.

To conclude the trip a spring rally at 9 a.m. and luncheon at 12 noon is arranged for Saturday, April 4, the chairman noted.

Mrs. Frank's theme is, "a mighty force, united patriots of all ages, races, and creeds in a love for America that keeps our country strong and free."

Special pride in two brothers who served in the military led Mrs. Frank in joining the Ladies Auxiliary of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, 2823, Burlington, Wis., in 1946. She has served in office each year since becoming a member of the auxiliary.

When Mrs. Frank and her husband William, moved to Manitowish, she transferred her membership to Otto Oas Auxiliary 659, Manitowish. A civic and community leader, Mrs. Frank served on Mishicot School System, Citizen Advisory committee, is a member of Manitowish County Meadow Brook Homemakers Club, charter member and past president, Shady Lane Home for Aged Auxiliary, active volunteer in dear Fund, Cancer, United Way and many other fund raising projects.

She also has studied First Aid in a Red Cross class, is an American history enthusiast, and expert knitter. Mrs. Frank and her husband are active members of Rockwood Lutheran Church.

DAR state conference to meet in Chicago

Women from throughout Illinois will meet March 26-28 for the 85th Illinois DAR State Conference in Chicago at the historic Drake Hotel. Participants, ranging in age from teenagers to grandmothers, will represent the 1,900 Illinois chapters of the American Revolution members.

Highlights of the conference will be the presentation of the 1981 DAR Good Citizens representing seven districts in the state; announcement of the DAR's own outstanding junior member and installation of officers. The DAR State Chorus, something new for the organization and just recently coordinated with 30 members representing many chapters will entertain at the state banquet, Friday evening, March 27.

Miss Jane Grey Sowell, chairman of the DAR's Society Daughters of the American Revolution (NSDAR) newly-formed Energy Ethics Committee will keynote the conference at the state banquet on her first visit to Illinois; and Henry L. Cline, a graduate of Kate Duncan Smith DAR School in Grant, Ala., and now administrator of the school, will address the group at the schools luncheon.

The air of the DAR Good Citizen award is to recognize the qualities of dependability, service, leadership and patriotism in youth, it was announced.

Nominees from most high schools in Illinois are eligible for the award. The national DAR Good Citizen is awarded a $1,000 scholarship to the college of his or her choice.

The outstanding junior DAR member selected at the conference must be between the ages of 18 and 35, and she typifies the ideal young member. She must have made a vital contribution to DAR work, must be active in her community by furthering historic, educational and patriotic endeavors and must be active in promoting the national society's motto, "God, Home and Country."

Each of the 130 chapters in Illinois has the opportunity to nominate a candidate. DAR themes from the past years help tell the DAR story, and they are: "To perpetuate the memory of the men and women who achieved American Independence," "The Way of the Lord is strength to the upright," "Proverbs 10:29," "Building for Our Future," and "A Tapestry of Service."

The NSDAR gives thousands of U.S. flags to schools, youth groups and veterans hospitals and gives yearly awards for American history essay contests conducted in schools, grades 5-8, to promote knowledge of American history.

The DAR operates two schools in the Appalachian area — Tennessee DAR School, Tamassee, S.C., and Kate Duncan Smith DAR School, Grant, Ala., and also aids two Indian schools in an effort to "help Indians help themselves." In addition, the DAR supports conservation and preservation projects. Thousands of dollars are awarded annually on a national basis to students for medical-nursing and occupational therapy scholarships. A four-year American history scholarship also is awarded. The DAR maintains a major genealogical library and museum in Washington, D.C. The Illinois DAR has its own genealogical library in the Centralia Public Library.

The NSDAR was founded Oct. 11, 1890, and is headquartered in Washington, D.C. DAR headquarters is the largest complex of buildings in the world owned by a woman's organization.

Any older woman is eligible for membership who is 18 years of age or older and is descended from a man or woman, who, with unfailing loyalty to the cause of American Independence, served as a sailor, soldier or civil officer in one of the colonies or states, or in the United Colonies or States, as a recognized patriot, or rendered material aid thereto; provided the applicant is personally acceptable to the society.

Honors were also accorded to Jimmie Stuart and Ralph Baker for the signs they created to advertise the fund raising project.

Granite 650 to initiate

Arrangements for a formal initiation ceremony for membership candidates of Granite Chapter 650, Order of the Eastern Star were announced by Worthy Matron Mary French and Worthy Patron Orvin Diekmann, at a weekend meeting.

The ceremony is scheduled for the March 27 session of the chapter, they added.

Those introduced were grand chapter committee members, past matrons and past patrons, Donna Kagy, Arline Fox, Ruth Dick, Isabel Diekmann, Frances Williams, Hazel Wood, Dorothy Watkins, Hulda Griffith, Virginia John, Betty Ebrecht, Wendell Gritz, David John and Earl French.

Mrs. French reviewed the successful chicken and dumpling dinner held earlier this month. She extended appreciation for assistance on the project by those selling tickets.

Hazel Wood and Vee Throne thanked their committee members and Isabel Diekmann remarked about the help given by members of the James Stuart Chapter, Order of DeMolay.

Mrs. Mary Stuart, a member of the DeMolay Mother's Club, noted the DeMolay members will receive merit certificates for their services during the dinner.

Lesche Club studies American heritage

The Lesche Literary Club held its March meeting last week in the home of Mrs. Lena Rouland, 2028 Benton St.

Mrs. Maryann Cochran, president, opened the session, and the club members recited the pledge of allegiance and the club collection.

Program chairman, Mrs. Marie Gordon, introduced Mrs. Bess Henley and Mrs. Mary Miller. In keeping with this year's theme, "Our American Heritage," Mrs. Henley gave an account of the establishment and growth of the Granite City postal system, entitled "Guess Who's Coming to Dinner?"

Mrs. Miller's program, entitled "Guess Who's Coming to Dinner?" was a history of American cooking and the many heritages from which our recipes are borrowed. Her collection of old cookbooks, and recipes handed down by her mother, were enjoyed.

Following the program and business meeting, the members participated in a "show and tell" of antique utensils and accessories. Mrs. Rouland served a dessert course to those mentioned and to Mesdames Ruth Ann Bartels, Nancy Cochran, Faith Holsinger, Lois Holsinger, Burdine Holtzsch, Marie Klein, Lois Lester, Geneva Miller, Catherine Schipper, Connie Strotheide, Verna Stuart and Ted Veihl.

Communion Sunday at St. Joseph

Members of St. Ann Altar Society will attend a communion Sunday at the 9:30 a.m. mass this Sunday at St. Joseph Roman Catholic Church, it was announced at a meeting of the society held last week.

Mrs. Ann Pieper, president, conducted the business session following a pot luck dinner held in the church hall.

The by-laws were revised and reports were read by Mrs. Margaret Minzes, secretary-treasurer.

New members introduced were Mrs. Mary Juhasz and Mrs. Katherine Timar. Those observing birthdays were Mary B. Veiter, Mary Pastain and Elizabeth Balsai.

The clergy at the church also attended and a farewell gift was presented to Father Sol Rangel, M.S.F., who will be leaving for the missions in Mexico.

A donation from the quilters, headed by Mrs. Pastain, was presented to the altar society. Prizes for the evening went to Margaret Norn and Mrs. Minzes.

The next meeting is set for April 14 at 7:30 p.m. in the church basement, the president noted.

Hilltoppers host pot luck dinner

A noon pot-luck dinner was hosted by the Hilltoppers Club of St. John United Church of Christ, to precede the monthly business session held last week at the church.

Oliver Pfeiffer offered the dinner invocation and Mrs. Etta Locklear gave the prayer to precede the meeting. Group singing was held with Irene Anderson at the piano.

There were announcements of three members being ill and a notation that Louis Wille is recuperating at home and Mrs. Amanda Deutschmann and Mrs. Clara Harbig are in nursing homes.

Mrs. Lillian Adams gave a reading on "How to Pray Efficiently," followed by a memorial service for the late Irene Hendricks.

All repeated the Lord's Prayer to close the business discussion hour. Games were played and it was announced there is to be no April meeting due to Holy Week observances. Sessions will resume in May at the regular time.

Granite 650 to initiate

Arrangements for a formal initiation ceremony for membership candidates of Granite Chapter 650, Order of the Eastern Star were announced by Worthy Matron Mary French and Worthy Patron Orvin Diekmann, at a weekend meeting.

The ceremony is scheduled for the March 27 session of the chapter, they added.

Those introduced were grand chapter committee members, past matrons and past patrons, Donna Kagy, Arline Fox, Ruth Dick, Isabel Diekmann, Frances Williams, Hazel Wood, Dorothy Watkins, Hulda Griffith, Virginia John, Betty Ebrecht, Wendell Gritz, David John and Earl French.

Mrs. French reviewed the successful chicken and dumpling dinner held earlier this month. She extended appreciation for assistance on the project by those selling tickets.

Hazel Wood and Vee Throne thanked their committee members and Isabel Diekmann remarked about the help given by members of the James Stuart Chapter, Order of DeMolay.

Mrs. Mary Stuart, a member of the DeMolay Mother's Club, noted the DeMolay members will receive merit certificates for their services during the dinner.

Honors were also accorded to Jimmie Stuart and Ralph Baker for the signs they created to advertise the fund raising project.

Mrs. Throne announced the calendar for the signs they created to advertise the fund raising project.

Persons wishing to attend the conference can obtain registration forms from their local area agency on aging, senior center or nutrition site, or they can write directly to: Illinois Department on Aging, ATTN: White House Conference Registration, 421 E. Capitol Ave., Springfield 62706 (telephone 217-785-3356).

STATEWIDE GRAND JURIES PROPOSED. Illinois Attorney General Tyrone Fahner proposed legislation last week that would authorize statewide grand juries to fight illegal hazardous waste dumping, consumer fraud and narcotic traffic spreading across county lines. According to the legislation, the attorney general would apply to the chief justice of the state Supreme Court for a grand jury to investigate any of the three types of crime in two or more counties where alleged violations occurred.

The chief justice would then appoint a circuit judge to convene and preside over the grand jury, which would have jurisdiction throughout the state.

Could Madison beat Effingham? You betcha

By PETE HAYES

Sports Editor of the Press-Record
GRANITE CITY — This is one year the big schools should be glad there isn't a one-class basketball playoff system in Illinois anymore.

Tuesday night after Effingham blasted East St. Louis 77-41 to win the Class AA (large school) Super-Sectional at the SIU Arena in Carbondale, the question was circulating...

Could Madison's Trojans, the small school state champs, beat Effingham, Southern Illinois' representative at the State Finals this weekend?

The answer, of course, is yes. Emphatically yes. After watching Madison destroy opponent after opponent this season, it soon became obvious — the Trojans were one of the best teams in the state. No matter what class you were talking about. So it's clear as crystal that the Trojans would do fairly well in the Class AA tournament. It's the first time since the inception of the two-class tournament ten years ago that the small school chance would be a real fighting chance for the large school trophy.

Now before you fall out of your chair laughing, consider the facts:

1. East St. Louis Senior was the Metro-East representative at the Class AA Super-Sectional Tuesday night. The Flyers beat highly-regarded East St. Louis Lincoln and Wood River along the way. Madison beat East St. Louis TWICE during the regular season.

2. Vandalia split with Effingham, this season.

The Hearts beat the Vandals by seven points

Uwe Blab (that's pronounced Ooovay Blab) with seven seconds left in the game to beat Mount Vernon 50-49 in the Sectional championship last Friday night at Salem. Mount Vernon had the Flaming Hearts on the ropes and let the escape. Madison ran all over Mount Vernon 72-61 in the championship game of the Centra Madison. We all know that Madison couldn't even stay on the same court with undefeated and top-ranked Quincy, right?

Not so sure about that. Quincy edged New Lenox-Providence 47-42 in the championship game of the Pontiac Tournament in January. That was Quincy's closest game of the season. Madison beat New Lenox by two points in the State Quarterfinals last week.

You know what? The Trojans might have just beaten Effingham. Of course, the Trojans could have a little trouble handling the 7-2 Blab. But then, Madison's been at a height disadvantage most of the season. It hasn't bothered them that much. They find another way.

Patrick Hatter would drive the Hearts crazy with steals, jump shots and slam-dunks. Ah yes, the slam-dunks. Hatter at 6-2 would teach 7-2 Blab what a dunk is REALLY all about. I mean, how hard is it to slam-dunk when you're already about as tall as the basket? Blab hardly has to leave his feet to slam one. Big deal. I used to know a guy who liked to pretend he was Wilt Chamberlain by playing on a seven-foot high little kids' basket and slam-dunking. Same difference.

Uwe Blab? Who dat?

in Effingham and lost to them by two points. Madison destroyed Vandalia in the semifinals of the Sectional Tournament.

3. Effingham squeaked by Lawrenceville 51-49 in the first time since the inception of the two-class tournament ten years ago that the small school chance would be a real fighting chance for the large school trophy.

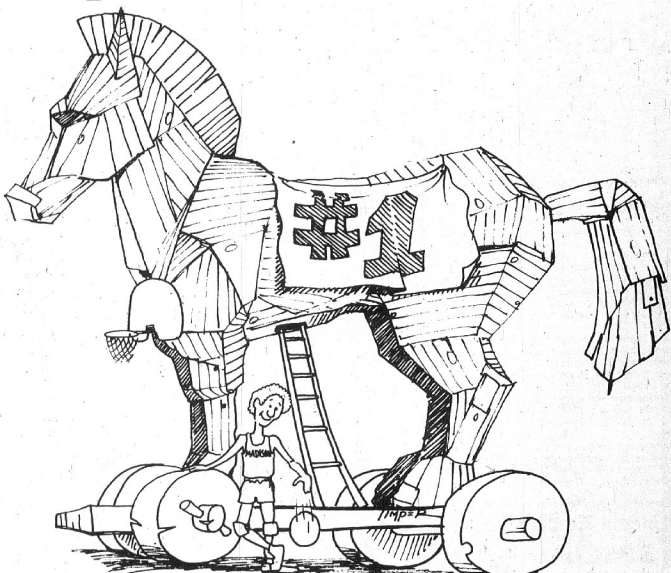

4. Effingham had to use two free throws by its 7-2 German import center

Holiday Tournament in January.

If that's not enough to convince you, we could go down the list and take things even further...

— Centra defeated Effingham 74-63 at the semifinals of the Centra Christmas Tournament at Eastern Illinois University. Madison lambasted Lawrenceville by 24 points on the same floor last week in the same blow-out until Lincoln let the Hearts get back into it late. Of course, Lincoln lost to East Side, which lost twice to West stars thump East wrestlers

Special to the Press-Record

GRANITE CITY — The West All-Stars beat the East All-Stars here last night in the third annual Prep East-West Wrestling Meet held at Granite City High School North. It was a night of top-flight wrestling.

The West All-Star team, made up of some of the best senior wrestlers from the Missouri side of the metropolitan St. Louis area, edged the Illinois All-Stars 24-20 in the meet. The Missouri All-Stars now lead the series between the two 2-1.

Granite City was well-represented at the meet. The Granite Cityans won four of the five bouts they were entered in. At 96 pounds, Missouri state champion Vito Krusche of House Springs defeated Kevin Doyle of Litchfield 16-3. The Illinoisans got on the scoreboard in the next bout, however. Belleville West's Tim Partelow defeated Harold White of O'Fallon Tech 9-6 at 105 pounds.

Gerald Miller of Granite City North, who qualified for the State Finals this season, lost a heart-breaking 9-8 decision to John Schumaker of Webster Groves in the 112 pound bout.

But Granite City came right back for a victory in the next bout. Greg Garland of Granite City South, who finished fifth in the tough 119 pound division at the State Finals this season, made light work of Normandy's Frank Montgomery, who finished fourth in the Missouri meet. Garland destroyed Montgomery 20-8.

Granite City South's Randy Lupardus, also a State Finals qualifier, defeated Mark Pinklang of Pattonville, who was third in the Missouri 126 pound class. Lupardus grabbed a 2-1 victory.

At 132 pounds, Steve Sines of Parkway West blanked Darren Ross of Belleville West 4-0. Keith Kennon of Francis Howell had an easy time with Triad's Todd Niebauer 15-5 in the 135 pound bout.

Missouri took its third straight bout at 145 pounds when Shawn Griggs of Pattonville blanked Mark Schmitt of Belleville Althoff 11-0.

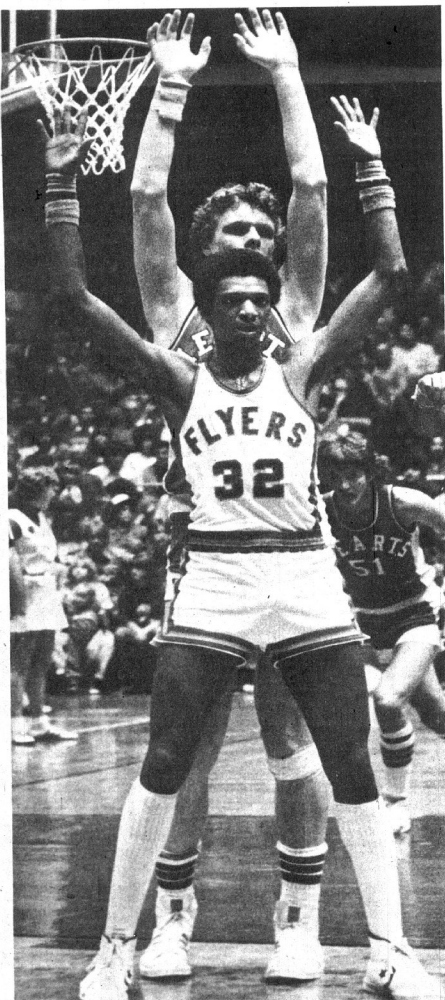

Granite City South's Dean Perkins, who was the Illinois state runner-up at 155 pounds this season and didn't lose a bout until the state championship one, defeated Missouri state champion Mark Rodan of Francis Howell 5-1.

At 167 pounds, Doug Anderson of Pattonville, the Missouri state champion in both 1979 and 1980, defeated Tony Castiller of Belleville East 9-4.

Jim Frangoulis of Granite City South defeated Andy Halbert of Francis Howell 4-2 in the 175 pound bout. Halbert finished fourth in the Missouri finals.

At 185 pounds, Fort Zumwalt's Ken Lein, the Missouri champ, beat Dave Wushols of Belleville West 6-0.

In the heavyweight bout, Cahokia's Keith Cruise, the Illinois state champion, had an easy time with Tony Isbell of Francis Howell 11-4. Isbell finished fifth in Missouri.

TOUGH TO DEFEND. Effingham's 7-2 center Uwe Blab towers over 6-4 East St. Louis Flyer Robert Gordon (32) Tuesday night in the Carbondale, Class AA Super-Sectional.

Blab, Hearts pound out-'manned' Flyers

By PETE HAYES

Sports Editor of the Press-Record

CARBONDALE — Jim Maxedon was worried. At least he SAID he was worried.

Before his Effingham Flaming Hearts took the floor against East St. Louis Senior in the Carbondale Class AA Super-Sectional at the SIU Arena Tuesday night, Maxedon said he was a little concerned about the Flyers' speed and quickness. But he forgot to mention another ingredient in the organization. East St. Louis didn't have any.

The Flyers surprised just about everyone in the place when they utilized a man-to-man defense the entire game. East Side was no match for the Hearts.

Effingham bumped off East Side 77-61 and earned its second straight trip to the Ellie Eight — the Class AA State Quarterfinals at the Assembly Hall in Champaign. Effingham was runner-up last season. It will face Wheaton Central in the quarterfinals Friday at 12:15 p.m.

In a word, it was too much Uwe.

Uwe Blab, the 7-2 German import was too much for the Flyers. The senior center scored 22 points (including four slam-dunks) and grabbed a game-high 20 rebounds. And he didn't have to leave his feet for many of them. East St. Louis' tallest player was 6-7 center Thad Flores, who had nine points and three rebounds.

"Nobody's played us that way (man-to-man) in a long time," said a smiling Maxedon after the game. "They did force us into some turnovers. But we still got a lot of good shots."

Effingham made 29 of 51 field goal attempts (57 percent) while the Flyers made 28 of 45 (62 percent).

"Effingham played a good ball game," said Flyer coach Coy Nunn. "But we didn't play good at all. I know we could've done better. I hope they play Quincy at state. We'll see how good they are." Quincy (32-0), ranked first in the state, beat East Side 100-66 this season. If both teams win their first games, they'll play at 11:45 a.m. Saturday in the semifinals.

Blab wasn't the only player on the floor for the Hearts. He wasn't even their leading scorer. Kent Goekner, a 6-7 junior forward, and Don Dieker, a 6-3 senior, scored 25 points each. That's 72 of Effingham's 77 points tied up in three players.

Most of Effingham's shots came from the 10-15 foot range. "That's where we like to get them," said Maxedon. "We took them those shots because that's where we're most effective. I don't consider that outside shooting." The Flyers showed their full-court press, but the Hearts handled it. "But we're not used to playing against kids with this much quickness," pleaded Maxedon.

It made no difference. East St. Louis had trouble all night trying to shoot over the taller Hearts. Instead of stopping to pull up and take a short jumper or dumping the ball off to a teammate, the Flyers tried to shoot directly over Uwe and crew.

The turning point of the game was late in the first quarter and early in the second. That's when Effingham reeled off 16 straight points to take a 20-6 lead after trailing 6-4. But East St. Louis wouldn't concede.

The Flyers made three runs at the Hearts, getting

Lincoln puts end to Lady Warriors' season

JACKSONVILLE — The East St. Louis Lincoln girls basketball team has ended many a team's season. The Tigertettes closed the book on Granite City South's bid to the state tourney last year. They did it again here Tuesday.

Running their unbeaten streak to 57 games over the last two seasons and 27-0 in 1981, the Tigertettes cruised to an easy victory at the Class AA Jacksonville Sectional. Lincoln dropped South 69-40. It was only the Warriors' second defeat of the year. They finished at 19-2.

Most of those 19 wins were because of the one-two punch of Chris Boyd and Nita Graham. But, Lincoln's got a one-two punch too. One that floored South.

Teams around the area breathed a sigh of relief when Lincoln graduated its three starters last year. Leave it to head coach Earnest Riggins to find a solution. They all began to shut out again when the Tigertettes obtained 6-foot-3 transfer Tina Hutchinson. What a difference one player makes. South quickly found out.

"Hutchinson is definitely a asset to our program," said Riggins. "She's the key figure that's pulled the team together. If you're going to have a key figure, it should be a strong post. We build around her." With 23 fouls being whistled on the Trojans, Carlinville only had to have four scorers do all its work. Carlinville hit 18 free throws, while Madison failed to connect. Then again, the Trojans only shot two.

"Usually one of my guards foul out," said Madison head coach Carol Searns. "Playing in your home area is definitely an advantage. This type of loss is hard to take especially on the road." With 23 fouls being whistled on the Trojans, Carlinville only had to have four scorers do all its work. Carlinville hit 18 free throws, while Madison failed to connect. Then again, the Trojans only shot two.

Baseball preview

Steelers have shoes to fill

By TOM SCHOCKER
of the Press Record

GRANITE CITY — The spring has usually been good to Bob Stegemeier.

Plenty of young baseball talent. Good pitching. Proven performers. But for Stegemeier, the Granite City North baseball coach, the 1981 season will bring a change of pace. For the first time in a long while, he'll have to put together a new team.

"This is the first time in several years that I haven't had a good idea who was starting," said Stegemeier. "I'm hoping somebody will come through around mid-season."

The Steelers have been fortunate to produce the bloomers. It helped in taking them to the 1979 State Class AA Finals in Peoria and chalking up a 24-7 record last year. It was the most wins ever in a North baseball season.

However, graduation took its toll rather heavily and left the Steelers with large gaps in their infield and pitching staff. In fact, North lost four-fifths of its infield and four senior pitchers. "Of the eight defensive positions, not counting the pitching, we lost four and have four back," said Stegemeier. "Only three of those four are full-time starters, too."

The lone remaining player in North's unpenetrable defensive line is senior second baseman Danny Patterson. With a depletion of that line, Stegemeier felt that Patterson will be moving over to shortstop for the 1981 season.

"We lost Dennis Page, Bob Batey and Mike Robertson," said Stegemeier. "That Batey and Robertson side will be hard to fill. Batey played varsity for four years and Robertson played for three. That's seven years of experience we've lost. So, we'll be depending on Patterson in the infield as a leader."

Robertson has gone south to Carbondale and the SIU baseball Salukis. Batey will be holding shortstop for Belleville Area College this spring.

Stegemeier will be forced into a number of switches and some players will be finding themselves in new positions. At least from what they played last year. Of the 10 seniors on the team, Stegemeier thinks that five will be starters. "If we were starting tomorrow, those are the only ones I know would start for sure," said Stegemeier.

Another senior, Rob Chapman, will probably be seeing action in a different spot according to Stegemeier. The likely move will be from his normal outfield position to second base, trying to fill the holes. Senior Brian Corey will also step into the infield from his outfield spot to third base.

The outfield will have senior Rick Buer roaming the area again and sophomore Darren DePew will be back behind the plate — maybe. DePew's talents might require him to take up others positions.

"Darren is a strong, physical player," said Stegemeier. "He's got a year's experience and he's very mature for a young man his age. He showed a lot of composure last year and could very well be one of the best catchers in the area this year. He's got the physical tools that, if need be, we'll use him on the infield or outfield. If we could strengthen up a couple of sophomores to catch, then we'll use DePew in other places."

The juggling of players and position is enough of a headache, but Stegemeier's main concern is his pitching staff. "I only have two proven pitchers on the varsity staff," said Stegemeier. "I would like to have four starters for our schedule. We have to have pitching to combat it."

"If we can't find the numbers we need, we'll have to pitch some infielders or outfielders. We might even bring up some sophomores. I think pitching is definitely a weak spot."

"I would think this is a rebuilding year, because of the lack of pitching. The biggest difference this year will be our inexperience and pitching holds a part."

TC swimmers to state

GRANITE CITY — The culmination of the area's swim season gave evidence to the hard work that the Tri-City Swimmers put out this year.

Since September the team has prepared for the Satellite Meet. Last week teams from Southern Illinois and St. Louis competed in the Satellite Championships.

Coming with a team of 50 swimmers, the TC swimmers had 21 swimmers qualify for the State Finals. The girls placed second out of twelve teams and brought back four team trophies.

Notable performances came from Cindi Stroehde, Mike Geske, D'Na Hankins and Tonya Geske who qualified in three events. (The limit allowed.)

In the eight and under age group: Cathy Martin put in qualifying times in 25 breast: 21:52 to place fifth and 25 fly: 17:97 to place second. Joe Martinex 25 free: placed fifth with a time of 15:61.

Those making the finals were: medley relay girls (Cathy Martin, Tina Scaturro, Kathy Scaturro and Lynn Yehling) placing fourth. Boys: Shannon Allen, Don Kamadulski, Chris Hankins and Gary Rayburn who placed fifth. Joe Martin placed fourth in 25 fly. Kathy Scaturro, 25 breast, placed fourth.

Nine to 10 year old State Qualifiers: medley relay who had a time of 2:32.0 which placed second with Liz Owen, D'Na Hankins, Tonya Geske, D'Na Hankins and Tonya Geske. Those qualifying individually were: Tonya Geske, 50 fly with a time of 35.8 placing fourth and D'Na Hankins who placed third with a time of 39.8.

Those making the finals: Lara Baldwin, fifth in 100 I.M., Janet Niles placed fifth in 50 fly, Lyndee Dew placed fourth in 100 free and Melinda Pucker placed sixth in 100 free. Li Oyen fifth in 50 backstroke.

Nine to 10 boys: free relay placed fifth with Marc Sine, Mike Scaturro, Danny Niles and Vince Darnell. Vince Darnell also placed fifth in the 100 I.M. and fourth in 50 free.

Qualifiers in 11-12 age group: medley relay with Chris Toussaint, Lisa Lenzi, Patti Martin and Diane Oliver. Patti Martin also qualified in 50 fly.

EASY TWO. Effingham's 7-2 German exchange student Uwe Blab slams dunks the ball over a pair of East St. Louis defenders Tuesday night during his team's 77-61 victory in the Carbondale Super-Sectional at the SIU Arena.

is between second and short," said Modica. "We might be in a trial period for those positions. They're critical."

Junior Rick Daily could be dividing his time between work on the mound and a position on the infield or the outfield. In addition to his pitching duties, sophomore D'Linhart might have a dual role as back-up shortstop.

As one of South better hitters last year, sophomore John Linhart has Modica looking for a position to put him in. "I don't know where he is going to play," said Modica. "But he's got to be in the line-up."

He has his hands full, but Modica should have plenty to choose from. He will have to seniors on the squad and all of them are returning lettermen. "Our defense will be shaky until we find the right combination," said Modica.

But, he Warriors should have an easier time playing on their field. "It always pays to play on good field," Modica said. "It's got to help your team. I hate to go any place else and play." South had the home field last year and still only produced a 12-22 record. That mark could be improved upon with an improving pitching staff.

"We have four senior pitchers and only one was proven from last year," said

Modica. Randy Cann seems to be Modica's ace. Although South does have some talent from Daily and Pat Linhart. "Randy was 5-1 in American Legion ball last summer, so he should turn out to be our best pitcher," said Modica. "I hope it's not a weak spot. We have to be strong in pitching to be in ball games. If those three and the other seniors do their job, we could be respectable."

Chyzowych, Gansler here

GRANITE CITY — The main man of Olympic and youth soccer in the United States is coming to Granite City. Walt Chyzowych, the United States Olympic head coach of the U.S. National Youth Team, will make several appearances in this area this weekend, including a pair in Granite City at Soccer for Fun, Inc., the new indoor soccer facility located at Pontoon Road and the Illinois Route 111.

Appearing with Chyzowych will be Bob Gansler, the assistant coach of the National Team. The pair will also appear in Alton and Collinsville. They will arrive in St.

Louis Friday afternoon and go to the Collegiate Indoor Soccer Tournament being held at Twellman's Just for Fun indoor soccer facility in St. Louis.

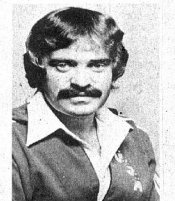

At noon Saturday, they will travel to Collinsville and appear at the Collinsville Soccer Complex, located on State Aid Route 85.

At 4 p.m. Saturday, Chyzowych and Gansler will watch a game between the Illinois Select Youth Team and the Missouri Select Team at SIU-Edwardsville's Cougar Field. That evening, there will be a special dinner for he and Gansler at Charlie's Restaurant in Granite City.

At noon Sunday, Chyzowych will speak to a Select Team Seminar at Soccer for Fun. In attendance will be coaches and administrators for select team from 14 states. Sunday afternoon, he will visit Alton's soccer complex and later be greeted by Granite City Mayor Paul Schuler at a special reception.

Sunday evening at 5:30, Chyzowych will speak to a clinic at Soccer for Fun. The clinic will be for all registered youth coaches. There will be free admission.

★★ AN OPEN LETTER TO ALL CITIZENS OF GRANITE CITY! ★★

Since March 15, 1977, Granite City has progressed with the establishment and continuing operation of the City Ambulance Service. We feel that this is one of the major accomplishments of the Schuler Administration. We wish to discuss with you why we feel this service is of such vital importance to our community.

FACT

Our Ambulance Service is really an "Emergency Medical Services" system. When someone calls us, he or she is not merely receiving an ambulance, but a fully trained and State Certified crew, knowledgeable in the many aspects of "on the scene" emergency care. The patient is plugged into an emergency medical "system" whereby Doctors and Nurses at the hospital are informed of the condition of the patient, the treatment rendered, and the estimated time of arrival.

FACT

Since our inception four years ago, our City Ambulance Service has assisted, treated, and transported over 14,800 patients in the Granite City area. We are proud of this achievement. We are also proud of the fact that if unexpected illness or accident strikes you or a loved one, we will be on the scene assisting in an average of 3 to 6 minutes.

FACT

We are constantly striving to better our skills for you. Seven men have become State Certified Paramedics under the City Ambulance Service. Eight of our members have been Certified as "Emergency Rescue Technicians." Four of our members are Cardio-Pulmonary Resuscitation (CPR) Instructors. In addition many of our members have attended various seminars to better familiarize themselves with the latest techniques in emergency care.

*FACT

In 1981 Heart Attacks will claim the lives of 70 Granite City residents. 32 of these lives can be saved with a properly functioning Ambulance Service.

*FACT

In 1981 500 Granite City residents will suffer serious accidents; 22 will die, 80 will suffer lasting disability. Proper and Immediate emergency care will result in a 20-35% reduction in loss of lives and suffering.

*FACT

In 1981 100 accidental poisonings will occur in Granite City (90% in children), and 2 will die.

*FACT

In 1981 16 Granite Cityians will be seriously burned, 2 will die.

*FACT

A properly functioning Ambulance Service will show a 20-35% REDUCTION in loss of lives and productivity.

* All statistics courtesy of the American Heart Association and the Advanced Coronary Treatment Foundation; based on occurrences per 100,000 population.

FACT

Our membership is active in the community. We make many charitable contributions to needy individuals and organizations. We conduct CPR classes for the general public, and we are always available for free Blood Pressure checks. We are here to serve you both on and off duty.

In summation, we of the Granite City Ambulance Service feel that the needs of all of us as citizens will best be served by re-electing the man whose farsightedness and hard work gave us this PROGRESSIVE and VITAL City Service.

THEREFORE, WE UNANIMOUSLY ENDORSE, AND ASK YOU TO..

JOIN US AND ON APRIL 7, 1981 ... VOTE TO RE-ELECT...

THOMAS DeVRIEZE, CHAIRMAN

Two full slates in competition for Chouteau Township posts

WALTER SPARKS

Walter "Dick" Sparks is running for re-election as supervisor of Chouteau Township on the United Township Party ticket.

Serving as town clerk, county board member and supervisor, he has compiled 24 years of experience in government.

He and his wife, Hazel, have resided at 613 English Place in Mitchell since 1947. He retired in 1979 to devote full time to his job as supervisor.

Sparks is a member of the Chouteau Township Senior Citizens organization, the Mississippi Valley Consistory of Township and County officials of Illinois and the Lewis and Clark Historical Society.

He is a past master of Masonic Lodge 99 and a former member of the United Plumbers and Steamfitters Association, Sheet Metal Workers Association and International Brotherhood of Teamsters.

Sparks said he and members of his party have made several improvements during his term as supervisor including building a highway department garage and combination town office and social center on North Thorngate Drive, and he wishes to continue as supervisor to complete several new projects.

Future plans include acquiring community development funds for the hookup of sewers for senior citizens, the handicapped and low-income families and to support legislation to ban annexations of township property by co-extensive city-townships, such as Granite City and Alton.

PATRICIA POLLEY

Patricia Polley is seeking a third term as town clerk of Chouteau Township on the United Township Party ticket in the April 7 election.

Mrs. Polley was born in Cotter, Ariz., and graduated from Aurora High School in Aurora, Mo. She was formerly employed as an executive secretary at Welch Fabrics.

She is a member of Namecki Presbyterian Church and is a former Sunday school teacher. She presently is vacation Bible school director and treasurer.

Mrs. Polley is involved with the International Hospitality program, the Madison County Nursing Home Auxiliary, Mitchell School PTA and the Granite City Area Council of PTAs.

She is an honorary lifetime member of the Illinois PTA, and is secretary of the Madison County Township Officials. She also is a member of Township Officials of Illinois, and is a past president of the Thorngate Garden Club.

She and her husband, Robert, have three children, and live on Thorngate Drive.

"I feel that the office of town clerk has been diligently, efficiently and honestly administered over the past 8½ years. Many of my suggestions for change have subsequently been followed to the betterment of the township and the community. I am proud to have played such a viable part in shaping the future of Chouteau Township and, if elected, I pledge to continue the same fair, courteous service to all residents," said Mrs. Polley.

CLETUS BEDWELL

Cletus L. Bedwell, 51, is a candidate for re-election to the office of Chouteau Township tax collector on the United Township party ticket.

Bedwell was born in Thebes, Ill., and has been a resident of Chouteau Township for 20 years. He retired from Laclede Steel Co. after 30 years employment.

He is a charter member of the South Roxana Fire Department, serving as president, captain and assistant fire chief, and is a member of the Madison County and Illinois Firemen's Associations.

Bedwell previously served 16 years as Chouteau Township auditor. For 17 years, he was an elected official of Illinois, and is a member of the United Steelworkers of America.

He served five years as first vice-president of the Alton-Wood River Area Federation of Labor, and is a member of Masonic Lodge 1092 and the South Roxana Assembly of God Church.

Bedwell feels he can "continue to supply a needed and vital service to the citizens of Chouteau Township."

He and his wife reside at 800 Missouri in South Roxana. They have three children.

MARION SPARKS

Marion "Sparky" Sparks, who has been affiliated with Chouteau Township government for 22 years as auditor and trustee, is seeking election as assessor on the United Township party ticket.

He now holds the assessor's post by appointment. Sparks has resided in the area most of his life. He owned and operated Sparky's Concessions for 15 years and formerly worked as a welder, steamfitter and boilermaker.

He is of the Protestant faith and is a member of the Hartford Civic League, Township Officials of Illinois, Illinois Assessors' Association, Chouteau Township Senior Citizens and the Madison County Farm Bureau.

"I feel I am qualified and can devote full time to the assessor job," said Sparks. He received a certificate from the Illinois Property Assessment Institute and he feels his experience will be beneficial to the people of the township.

Sparks and his wife, Valeda, have two sons and two daughters and live at 548 Chouteau Ave., Mitchell.

BUD EBERHART

Seeking re-election to the office of highway commissioner of Chouteau Township on the United Township party ticket is Wilfred "Bud" Eberhart.

Eberhart, a lifelong resident of the Quad-Cities, attended Mitchell School and Granite City High School. He is an overseas veteran of World War II.

Eberhart is employed at the Granite City Army Installation, where he has served 18 years as a heavy equipment mechanic and machine shop supervisor. He presently is employed as maintenance supervisor at the Madison County maintenance garage.

He served four years as Chouteau Township auditor and nine years as township constable. Eberhart was a member of the Mitchell Volunteer Fire Department for four years, and is president of the Mitchell Fire Protection District.

Eberhart also is a member of the Illinois and Madison County Firemen's Associations, the Township Officials of Madison County and of Illinois, and is past secretary and treasurer of the Mitchell Kiwanis Club.

He also is affiliated with Union Local 799 American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees, and with Disabled American Veterans' Chapter 53 and Moose Lodge 1349.

"If re-elected, I will continue to perform my duties as I have in the past. With the increasing inflation, I have managed to keep the Highway Department out of debt and provide the taxpayers with the best possible roads and service," said Eberhart.

JOSEPHINE BURGNER

Josephine Burgener, 55, is a candidate for trustee of Chouteau Township on the United Township Party ticket.

She was born in Morrilton, Ark., and attended high school in Little Rock, Ark. She has been a Granite City resident for 30 years.

Mrs. Burgener, a homemaker, was formerly employed as a packer at O'Beir Nester Glass Co. She is chief steward of Glass Bottle Blowers Union Local 130 and secretary of the senior citizens of Chouteau Township.

Mrs. Burgener also serves as president of the O.B.N. Club. She is a member of St. Elizabeth Catholic Church.

"I feel that each individual citizen has a responsibility to the community in which they live. This (election) gives me an opportunity to fulfill this obligation," said Mrs. Burgener.

She and her husband live at 5404 Maryville Road. They have four children.

DUDLEY LUEBBERT

Another candidate for trustee of Chouteau Township on the United Township party slate is Dudley T. Luebbert.

Luebbert was born in Granite City but resides in Hartford, Ill. He attended schools in Hartford and East Alton.

An operating engineer for Local 520, Luebbert is a member of the Hartford Civic League and the Wood River Moose Lodge 1349. He also is treasurer of the Hartford Volunteer Fire Department and chairman of the Madison County Political Action Committee for Local 520.

Luebbert has been a precinct committeeman for 12 years in Chouteau Precinct Three. He and his wife, Rose, have four children and live at 111 West Fourth St., Hartford.

Luebbert said, "I have been a trustee for four years and am seeking re-election so I can continue to serve the people of Chouteau Township."

THOMAS JOHNSON

Thomas W. Johnson, 1209 Main St., South Roxana, is one of four candidates on the United Township party ticket for trustee of Chouteau Township.

He was born in Prentice, Ala., and has lived in this area many years. Johnson attended Ironton (Mo.) High School and graduated from the U.S. Sixth Infantry Clerical School at Jefferson Barracks, Mo.

Johnson retired from the U.S. Air Force after 22 years. A precinct committeeman for Chouteau Township Precinct Seven, he is a former member of the board of education of the Lackland Air Force Base Schools.

He has worked as a parts and equipment supervisor, a maintenance man and a school bus driver. He was also a partner in Erroll's Service Station in Wood River.

He and his wife, Frances, have two children.

Man injured as shots are fired into house

Melton Johnson, 2411 Winters Drive, suffered a bullet wound through his right foot after a gunman fired approximately five bullets into his bedroom at 10:50 p.m. Sunday.

Johnson's wife, Alma, said she heard something like loud knocks in the bedroom and then heard her husband call for help.

A bullet had passed through his foot. Other shots had broken a window at the foot of the bed and some penetrated the bedroom closet and went into the bathroom.

Footprints in a flower bed under the rear bedroom window indicated the gunman stood there as he fired into the house. Five shots went through the window into the bedroom.

Robber takes $40 at station

An armed robber stole $140 from an attendant at the Clark Service Station, 320 Madison Ave., Madison, last week.

James Reeves told police a man who had been using an automatic pay phone came into the station, picked up a snack cake and turned around to the attendant with a .45 caliber pistol in his hand.

The man stole the cash after telling Reeves to empty his pockets and lie on the floor.

At this point, Reeves pushed an alarm button and the man fled east on Fourth Street.

The robber was described as a black man, about 25 years old, five feet nine inches tall with curly hair. He was wearing a matching purple top and purple pants.

and left holes in the bedroom, curtains, police said.

Johnson was taken by a Granite City ambulance to St. Elizabeth Medical Center for treatment.

Cooperative education to be topic at SIUE workshop

A free workshop concerning cooperative education and emerging occupations will be held at 6:30 p.m. today at SIUE in the Oak and Red Bud Rooms of the University Center building.

The workshop will be jointly sponsored by the Consortium of Vocational Educators and Employers (COVEE) and Linkages in Progress (LIP). John Sweeney of the Department of Adult, Vocational and Technical Education (DAVTE) will speak on the advantages of cooperative education for employers. Sweeney is one of the leading experts on cooperative education in the state.

Judy Verseman, instructor of business education at Edwardsville High, will show slides of a distributive education classroom. This will be followed by a panel of beginning cooperative education coordinators, including Dave Cooper of Edwardsville and Ben Klein of Cahokia, and of experienced employers such as Joe Schwarz and Tracy Sherman. The beginning coordinators will ask questions of the employers to bring forth the specific skills and attributes that students need to become employable.

Bernice Johnson, a work experience coordinator (DVR) at Edwardsville High, will speak on the opportunities for special education students in cooperative education programs.

University level cooperation will be discussed by a panel of guests which will include Wilbur Campbell, an occupational education coordinator at SIUE, and William Williams, training programs director with Olin Corporation; and others.

Finally, Jack Williams of the Illinois State Board of Education-Department of Adult, Vocational and Technical Education will speak on emerging occupations in Illinois with special emphasis on southwestern Illinois.

United Township Party goes against Chouteau Independent Party

PEYTON PAVIA

Peyton "Lee" Pavia, 48, of 300 Springfield Ave., Mitchell, is a candidate for supervisor of Chouteau Township on the Chouteau Independent party ticket. He has resided in the Mitchell area for 11 years.

Pavia attended and graduated from St. Louis schools. He has earned college credits in management techniques and was awarded a certificate of merit from the American Association of Industrial Management. While in the AAIM program, he studied fundamentals of supervision, innovative management, management and budget techniques and principles of cost reduction.

He is presently employed in a supervisory position at Duke Manufacturing, where he has worked for 30 years. He was chief steward in ISMA Local 93 for 10 years and involved in contract negotiations during that time. He now holds a withdrawal card from that local.

Pavia has belonged to PTA organizations, North Star Mutual Aid Society, Water Tower Boys Club and is a lifetime member of the Salvation Army. He is past president and secretary of Madison County Social Democratic Club and belongs to the Federation of Eagles 1106. Pavia also is the past president and now secretary of the Chouteau Citizens Club and is involved in several other civic and community activities. He is of the Lutheran faith.

"If elected I pledge to develop and promote an administration that will act on issues. Many changes are occurring throughout the community that demonstrate a need for definitive and strong leadership. I will work to initiate changes necessary to provide this type of leadership. I will bring dynamic, fresh new approaches to the position of supervisor. Approaches that will offer appropriate, responsible solutions to all township issues. Furthermore, I will form committees to examine improved services to senior citizens and youth groups; and also to implement expanded use of township hall," said Pavia.

He and his wife, Lorraine, have four daughters.

Investigate attempted abduction

Granite City police are investigating the report of an 11-year-old boy who said a man in a black Jeep attempted to get him into the vehicle outside the E&L Market, 2501 Washington Ave., between 4:50 and 5 p.m. Sunday.

The boy, a resident of East 25th Street, said the man called to him as the boy left the market and asked where he lived. The young boy said the man offered him a ride several times until the youth ran away and reported the incident to his parents.

He described the driver as about 25 to 30 years old, having brown collar-length hair and a full mustache and of medium build. He drove an all-black Jeep with a hard top and having big tires with white lettering.

Police stopped a Jeep matching that description later Sunday evening on Namooki Road and questioned the two occupants, but released them, pending further investigation.

He also served on the advisory board to the mayor of South Roxana and is a former member of the Fire Department.

"If elected I will be able to devote full time to the position of town clerk as I am retired. I have previously served in many responsible positions that will enable me to call upon these experiences to better perform the duties of clerk. I will respectfully serve the residents of Chouteau Township with honesty and dignity."

SUE to offer short course in transition

A short course, "Careers in Transition," will be offered at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville for three consecutive weekdays, starting March 28.

Sponsored by the Office of Continuing Education, the course will be held from 12:30 p.m. March 28 and 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. April 2 and 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. April 11. The fee for the class is $25.

The course is designed for people who are thinking of looking for a better job, returning to school or work, or making a career change. It will aim toward making the transition smoother by examining the ways that skills and abilities have a direct relationship to career possibilities, talking with professionals about careers, administering the Career Planning Program Interest Inventory, and learning how SUE may be able to fulfill career aspirations.

For further information, interested people may call the Office of Continuing Education at (618) 992-3210.

Prather Junior High School held its fourth annual spelling bee competition last week and awarded trophies to the top spellers, in the Language Arts classes.

Receiving trophies were Donna Kulesza, seventh grader in Sterling Schoen's class with David Combs as runner-up, from Carol Hildebrand's class.

In the eighth-grade category, Jennifer Campion, a student of Mrs. Alice Koenig took first place and Robert Cornett, a pupil of Gene Gurnson, was named runner-up.

MICHAEL CARNER

Michael R. Carner, is the candidate for tax collector of Chouteau Township on the Chouteau Independent party ticket. He faces Incumbent Cletus Bedwell in the April 7 election.

Carner graduated from East St. Louis High School and attended Rankin Technical School in St. Louis for vocational training. He has been employed by Shell Oil Company for 15 years as an Operating Engineer. He is a veteran of the United States Marine Corps.

Carner is a member of the Mitchell Athletic Club, Chouteau Citizens Club, Local 525, Engineers and has been associated with the Mitchell School PTA, Little Rascals Football League, local Cub Scout troops and the Little League baseball teams in the area.

Carner pledges to make himself available for collection of taxes in posted places throughout the township, saying that collection of taxes will be done in an efficient and courteous manner. All payments would be dispersed to the various taxing agencies promptly, and all tax records would be available for the taxpayers' inspection.

He and his wife, Beth, have two children and reside at 109 Warren Lane, Mitchell.

Names Besserman deputy coroner

Madison County Coroner Dallas Burke has announced the appointment of Edward Besserman of Granite City as a deputy coroner, effective immediately.

Besserman is employed as manager and funeral consultant for the Bob Thomas Memorial Mortuaries Ltd. He has been with the firm for the past three years.

A native of Madison where he attended St. Mary's Parochial School, Besserman lived for a time in Greenville, Ill., until moving to Granite City 23 years ago when he married to the former Jerry K. Foley.

Besserman, his wife and their son, Terry, reside at 3041 Mayville Road. They are also the parents of two daughters, Mrs. Craig (Mary K.) Bilner of Collinsville and Mrs. Mary (Tina Mae) Sanchez of Granite City, and have three grandchildren.

Prior to joining the Granite City mortuary firm, Besserman was employed 26 years in the warehouse division of the former Tri-City Grocery Co.

He is a licensed emergency medical technician and will attend the St. Louis University School of Medicine's Medical College of Death Investigator Training Course in April.

Besserman is an active member of St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church. He is a former president of the Parish Council and the Knights of St. Margaret Mary Men's Club.

He also holds membership in the Knights of Columbus, Tri-Cities Council 1086, and Madison-Venice Rotary Club.

DARROL DAUGHERTY

Darrol M. Daugherty, 47, a candidate for Chouteau Township for 24 years, is a candidate for tax assessor of the Chouteau Independent party ticket.

Daugherty attended Southern Illinois University-Edwardsville studying business management. He is employed by McDonnell Douglas Corp. of St. Louis as a Supervisor of Material Handling.

Daugherty is a charter member of the Chouteau Citizens' Club. He has been associated with the Mitchell School PTA, Mitchell Athletic Club and local Cub Scout troops. He is a member of the Merom Masonic Lodge 289, Tri-City American Legion Post 113 and McDonnell Douglas Management Club. He is of the Presbyterian faith.

Daugherty's objectives in running for public office are to fulfill the office of assessor in a fair and impartial manner. "I pledge to respond, investigate and follow through with each and every inquiry that is submitted to me. Assessments will be updated as required by law and every effort will be made to maintain a median rate. This will enable township residents to hold down multipliers that often raise yearly taxes due to incorrect or incomplete assessments," he said.

Marine deployed to fleet training

Marine Lance Cpl. Michael W. Watson, son of James R. and Wanda P. Watson of 20 Victoria Drive, Granite City, is deployed to the Mediterranean Sea.

He is a member of the 3rd Battalion, 10th Marines, based at Camp Lejeune, N.C.

During the six-month cruise, his unit will be part of the 32nd Marine Amphibious Unit, the force-in-readiness for the U.S. 6th Fleet.

Training exercises will be conducted with the 6th Fleet and units from allied nations. Port calls are scheduled in various Mediterranean coastal cities.

A 1979 graduate of Granite City High School North, Watson joined the Marine Corps in August 1979.

WARRANT ARREST
Arnold K. Turner, 21, of Kirkwood, Mo., was brought to Granite City from the Alton Police Department at 4:50 p.m. Thursday on a warrant issued here alleging failure to appear on a charge of not having a valid registration.

ARTHUR LaROSE

Arthur C. LaRose, 58, a candidate for highway commissioner of Chouteau Township, is running on the Chouteau Independent party ticket.

He was born and raised in the Mitchell area. He and his wife, Norma, have four sons and they are lifelong residents of Chouteau Township. He is of the Presbyterian faith.

LaRose attended schools in Mitchell and Poag. He has worked for Paul's garage in Mitchell and now is employed as an auto rack inspector for the railroad. He served in the armed forces during World War II.

LaRose is a member of the 44th Tank Battalion Association. He was one of the first volunteer firemen in the Mitchell district and has served 17 years in this capacity. He now is an honorary member of the fire department and holds the office of secretary of the Mitchell Fire Protection District.

LaRose has been associated with the Mitchell School PTA and was active in various scouting activities when his sons were growing up. He is presently involved with duties as Democratic precinct committeeman in the Mitchell district and Chouteau Precinct Four. He also serves as deputy vote registrar and is an active member of the Chouteau Citizens' Club.

"If elected I will continue to make myself available to the people of the township as I have in the past. I will serve the members of the community in a helpful, courteous and responsive manner. I will devote every possible means to maintain the township roads and improve their present condition. I will work with all elected officials to provide prompt and effective services," said LaRose.

Officers halted an auto, allegedly being operated in a reckless manner on Route 162, between 20th Street and Nameki Road, at 1:20 a.m. Friday and arrested the driver and a passenger.

Police alleged the driver, Dennis L. Coleman, 32, of 402 Kirkpatrick Homes, stepped from the vehicle and spilled a quart of beer on the pavement.

He was charged with illegal transportation of alcohol, reckless driving and not having a city sticker. He was released at 3 a.m. Friday on payment of a $102 cash bond.

Kenneth R. Lewis, 40, of Rural Route One, Box 18, who allegedly was holding an open quart of beer, was charged with illegal possession of alcohol. He posted his driver's license and was released.

The second rally of the Young Citizens for Schuler organization is to be held at 7 p.m. today at the VFW Hall, 2044 Washington Ave. All supporters of Mayor Paul Schuler's re-election bid are being invited to attend the event, which will include refreshments and entertainment.

JOSEPH STEFANOFF

A candidate for trustee of Chouteau Township is Joseph D. Stefanoff, 54. He has resided in the township for 17 years, and is running on the Chouteau Independent party ticket.

Stefanoff received a General Equivalency Diploma after serving in the armed forces. He is a general foreman for Granite City Steel and has been employed by that company for 33 years, beginning his career as a railroad switchman.

Stefanoff is a past president of the Mitchell Athletic Club, and is a member of Masonic Triple Lodge 835, a commissioner of Chouteau, Nameki and Venice Drainage District and the Mitchell Public Water District.

He is also a member of the Granite City Steel Management Club, BLASCO, Amvets and the Chouteau Citizens' Club. He presently is serving as precinct committeeman in Chouteau Township Precinct 34. He is of the Baptist faith.

Stefanoff pledges to serve all the people of Chouteau Township to work productively with all other elected officials for improved government, and to pursue methods that will assist in the future growth of Chouteau Township. "I have experience in township activities as precinct committeeman and I am aware of the many needs for improvement in our township," Stefanoff said.

He resides at Rural Route Two, Box 709W, Mitchell with his wife, Jeanine, and six children.

Officers halted an auto, allegedly being operated in a reckless manner on Route 162, between 20th Street and Nameki Road, at 1:20 a.m. Friday and arrested the driver and a passenger.

Police alleged the driver, Dennis L. Coleman, 32, of 402 Kirkpatrick Homes, stepped from the vehicle and spilled a quart of beer on the pavement.

He was charged with illegal transportation of alcohol, reckless driving and not having a city sticker. He was released at 3 a.m. Friday on payment of a $102 cash bond.

Kenneth R. Lewis, 40, of Rural Route One, Box 18, who allegedly was holding an open quart of beer, was charged with illegal possession of alcohol. He posted his driver's license and was released.

UNDERCOATING—RALPH'S TEXACO 22nd & MADISON AVE.

ROBERT LECKRONE

Robert Leckrone, 51, is one of Chouteau Independent party's candidates for trustee of the Township.

Leckrone is a graduate of SIUE with majors in math and accounting. He is employed as a design draftsman at Shell Oil's engineering office. He is a veteran of the U.S. Army and served two years as a paratrooper during the Korean War.

Leckrone presently serves on the South Roxana Trustee Board and has held that position since 1977. He also is active in church and other community service organizations.

He lives with his wife Edna at 407 Ohio St. in South Roxana, and has been a resident of that area for 10 years. He attends Free Will Baptist Church in South Roxana.

Leckrone said he would utilize the position of trustee to represent all residents of Chouteau Township, rather than a selected few. "I will be available and willing to discuss issues with the citizens of the township. I will strive to seek opinions and feedback of board activities from all sections of the township and respond to this information with integrity and discretion," he said.

More-the-Merrier senior club met last week in the Granite City Township Building, 3060 Delmar Ave., for a business session and games.

Lester Thiele, president, was in charge, and the invocation was offered by Chaplain Ruby Corbett. Martin Schulte led the Pledge of Allegiance.

Among the guests introduced were Mr. and Mrs. Warren Decatur, Mrs. George Sykes and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Douglas.

Winners at pinocle were Al Giese, Schulte and Albert Mischel.

Cake and coffee were served. Assisting in the kitchen were Mrs. Moody, Helen Newland, Augusta Lampe and Johanna Gerald.

JUANITA BARNES

One of four candidates for trustee of Chouteau Township on the Chouteau Independent party ticket is Juanita H. Barnes, 51, who resides at 4912 Hills Avenue, Mitchell, with her husband, Doyle. She has four children, Janice, Kathy, Wayne, and Bryan, and has resided in the township for 30 years.

Mrs. Barnes attended Stallings Grade School and Edwardsville High School. She is a member of Bethel Evangelical Free Church, where she has served as a deaconess the past six years.

She also belonged to the Organization for Community Organizations, where she served in the office of treasurer and president. This group was responsible for the warning lights and gates at the Maryville Road railroad crossing.

Mrs. Barnes said, "If elected I would diligently toward the development of improved programs for senior citizens and youth groups. I will perform the duties of trustee to the best of my ability, responding to the needs of all citizens within the township. My past efforts in civic and community affairs will give me a solid basis for recognizing and acting upon vital issues in an impartial and responsible manner."

Thiele. It was announced a movie, "Coal Miner's Daughter," will be shown at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday in the township center.

St. Patrick's Day event is planned at the center on Tuesday afternoon and a performance by the Troy Opry group is being scheduled in May, it was reported.

Winners at pinocle were Al Giese, Schulte and Albert Mischel.

Cake and coffee were served. Assisting in the kitchen were Mrs. Moody, Helen Newland, Augusta Lampe and Johanna Gerald.

OVER 26 YEARS OF SERVICE

LOVE A BARGAIN? Price reduced almost $5,000 off of original asking price on this 4-bedroom stucco ranch with extra large rooms on an extra large lot at the edge of town. Newer roof and the $60,500 price is a steal.

SPRING FEVER? The remedy — 2571 Boyle is the fever reliever with its three bedrooms, two baths, finished basement and second kitchen for a fifties price.

TAX SHELTER? duplex is just what the accountant ordered. . . two bedrooms in each with fenced rear yard and off-street parking for a $30's price. Present owner will go contract for deed.

SKINNY DIP — If you dare. . . 24 ft. above-ground pool inside a fenced yard with deck off the eat-in kitchen, also three bedrooms, nice living room and warped in aluminum siding for care free living all year around. $80's

IF TIFANY'S SOLD HOME they'd stock this gem in Glenwood Estates. 4-bedroom brick and frame bi-level offers formal living and dining, family room with fireplace, fully equipped eat-in kitchen, three baths and 2-car garage for $92,500.

DOUBLE IS NO TROUBLE — UP AND DOWN duplex at 25xx State Street has one bedroom, bath, living and dining rooms plus kitchen in each unit, with $250 monthly income. Present owner lives down but monthly income could double with both units rented out. Low $40's.

IN LOVING memory of FRANK C. REATHOUSE, March 21, 1980. In our home he is fondly remembered, sweet memories cling to his name, those who loved him in life sincerely, still love him in death just the same. — Sadly missed by Wife, Daughter and Sons. 32 3 19

IN LOVING memory of ALEX SENEZCYN March 21, 1980. One year ago today God called our dad away, no tears in heaven, sorry there, will meet you someday, in God's love and tender care. — Sadly missed by Husband, Daughters, Sons and all who loved her. 32 3 19

IN LOVING memory of IMOGENE YORK, March 17, 1979. — Sadly missed by Mr. and Mrs. William York and all who loved her. 32 3 19

IN MEMORY of ALEX CLINARD who left us one year ago, March 22, 1980. On a hill that slopes so gently where the birds sing all the day, rest someone whom we cherish, more than words can ever say. The dad's smile is gone forever, and his hands we cannot touch, we miss him so much. — Sadly missed by Wife Hettie and Children. 32 3 19

The hearing, which is scheduled to begin at 7:00 p.m., is for the purpose of considering changes in bus service which are proposed to be implemented. The proposed service changes are generally described below.

A. Description of Project
It is proposed to eliminate twenty-one (21) Missouri routes: No. 01, Downtown Scotter, No. 02, Florissant-Hazelwood, No. 04, Clayton-Scotter, No. 05, Jennings South, No. 06, Jennings North, No. 08, Overland-St. Ann, No. 27, Overland-St. John, No. 28, Santa Maria-DePaul, No. 31, Federal Center, No. 34, Maplewood-Crestwood, No. 107, Loughborough, No. 635, Riverview Gardens, No. 16R Hazelwood Rapid, No. 71X Brown Campus Express, No. 204R Airport Rapid, No. 686X Spanish Lake-Hazelwood Express, No. 405X Bissell Hill Shopper Express, No. 745X Florissant Road North Shopper Express, No. 1055X Morganford Shopper Express, No. 661X Six Flags Express, and all eight Missouri routings of the No. 800 "Muney Opera" route.

2. It is proposed to increase the time between bus trips on eleven (11) Missouri routes: No. 93 Lindell, No. 95 Kingshighway, No. 103 Arsenal, No. 20X Southside Express, No. 41R Northside Rapid, No. 69R Ellisville-Ballwin Rapid, No. 91X Delmar Express, No. 92X Jamieson Express, No. 104X Natural Bridge Express, No. 140X Broadway-Barrackville Express, No. 212R Yorkshire Rapid.

3. In addition, morning and evening peak hour trips will be eliminated on No. 10 Lemay-Mehlville so that service will be provided between approximately 9:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m. only. Furthermore, one (1) a.m. and one (1) p.m. trip on No. 47 Cross County Shopping Center and in Clayton will be eliminated.

Hear officials at 'Community Affair'

Nine Madison County elected officials have been invited to participate in a special program, designed to help define their offices and responsibilities to the public, at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, March 24, in the library auditorium at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

The public is invited to attend, according to the Dane Nalefski of the Collinsville Business and Professional Women's Club, which is sponsoring the event.

Most of the officials invited have accepted or have agreed to send a representative. Miss Nalefski said.

Sallie Jo Burton, a past president of the BPW club, will serve as moderator.

Among those who have been contacted are: Madison County Clerk Willard Portell; Harry Briggs, superintendent of the Madison County Educational Service Region; County Sheriff Emil Toffant; Ronald Lucas, recorder of deeds; Mick Henkhaus, county treasurer; County Coroner Dallas Burke; Tom Fields, county auditor; and Don Weber, Madison County state's attorney.

Each of the officials will be asked about his or her job responsibility, the interaction between each other and related governmental offices and their responsibility to the taxpayers, Miss Nalefski said.

Refreshments will be served.

New Kinsmen

Come Back In Time with New Kinsmen

We've come a long way since Colonial days...but, not so long that we've forgotten how to make furniture in a spirit of style and grace. Meet New Kinsmen...a bedroom rich in traditional charm. Look for the gleam of brass finished knobs and ball pulls, tambour style doors, an authentic pine finish on select hardwoods and choose wood products. The double oval mirror, dresser cabinet and door dresser combine for distinctive beauty. Also features are a spacious chest of drawers, sliding tray, shelf and 3 shirt drawers, a commode and a chairback headboard with turnings on posts and spindles. New Kinsmen by American Drew...it's your share of the past.

Cub Pack 122 stages 'derby'

Cub Pack 122 held its annual "Pinewood Derby" miniature car races at Wilson School last week. First place winners in each age group were presented trophies and runners-up received ribbons.

Cub Scouts and Wabelos achieving awards were:

Eight years—Bobby Lipchik, first, Billy Yarbrough and Chris Anderson; 9 years—Jimmy Wasson, first, Buddy Vinson and Steve Willard; 10 years—Craig Dipple, first, Kenney McGee and John Moad.

Serving as judges were Don Lane, John McGee, Ken Taft and Neil Detweiler.

Refreshments were served after the race by Den Two, headed by Den Mother Nancy Nemeth.

While other Communist countries curb religion, Albania forbids it, having proclaimed itself in 1967 "the first atheist state in the world."

DO IT YOURSELF. Students at Granite City High School North can now create their own salads at the new salad bar recently added to the cafeteria. More than 300 North High students have been taking advantage of the salad bar each day. A similar salad bar also has been added to the GCHS South cafeteria.

2 schools burglarized; large quantity of meat is stolen

Break-ins at two Granite City schools were discovered Monday morning and were reported to police. At Wilson School, 2400 Wilson Ave., a large quantity of frozen meat and cheese, estimated at 289 pounds, was stolen from freezers in the kitchen.

The other burglary was at Johnson School, 4225 Old Alton Road. Only a few dollars worth of change are known missing from that school.

window which had been left open.

Desks in several classrooms and the filing cabinets in the main office were searched. Some of the filing cabinets were pried open and damaged.

In the kitchen, a grate was removed from the door to the stand-up freezer and 55 pounds of hamburger meat, 10 pounds of hamburger patties, 35 pounds of turkey roll, 30 pounds of wieners, 15 pounds of French fries and 36 pounds of ground pork were stolen. The freezer door was left open and 26 dozen ice cream cups spoiled, police discovered.

About 80 pounds of cheese was stolen from another freezer in the kitchen. A milk cooler also was pried open and two small cartons of milk were removed, contained and the empty cartons thrown on the floor.

At Johnson School, teacher's desks in several classrooms were searched and the empty cartons were gained by prying a window open.

Police noted the school's burglar alarm sounded at 11:55 p.m. Sunday and the building was searched at that time, but there were no signs of entry being gained. When the school was opened Monday morning, the break-in was discovered.

The Wilson School break-in was the second school burglary recently in which large quantities of frozen meat and food were taken. The last victim was Marshall School, 2700 Marshall Ave., several weeks ago.

Annual Joseph Gonzalez

The 10th annual Joseph Gonzalez Scholarship Dance will be held Saturday, March 21, at the Mexican Honorary Hall located at 1801 Spruce St. and is open to the public, according to chairmen of the fund raising project.

Sponsored by the Meican Honorary Commission, the dance is given in memory of the Granite City High School Guidance Counselor who was killed in an automobile accident in June of 1970.

The scholarships are administered by the Granite City Scholarship Foundation. Robert Robles, foundation board member, announces that any graduating high school student who will attend an accredited institution, demonstrates reasonable financial need and has maintained at least the minimum required grade point average is considered eligible.

Application forms and other specific information regarding the scholarships can be obtained at the guidance departments of both Granite City High Schools. Since the inception of the project there has been 21 high school seniors awarded Gonzalez Scholarships.

Music for the dance will be provided by the Terry Dutko Quintet beginning at 8 p.m. Mexican food and refreshments will be sold during the evening, the chairmen noted.

Tickets costing $2 per person are available at Mendoza Sporting Dods, Ernies and Annies Tavern, M.H.C. Lounge, from members, and will be sold at the door.

In past years donations have been made toward the scholarships and anyone who wishes to send a contribution for the program may mail their check to the Joseph Gonzalez Scholarship Fund, P.O. Box 25, Granite City, Ill. 62040, the chairmen explained.

They added, they have a goal of three scholarship grants in the amount of $700 each to be presented to local students, as a result of the fund raising project and campaign.

Rise in fatalities

ON ROADS IN STATE

Illinois traffic fatalities in February totaled 120, up 20 percent from February 1980, according to provisional statistics released by the Illinois Department of Transportation and the Illinois State Police.

The provisional tally of 266 fatalities for the first two months of 1981 is a 17.2 percent increase from the 227 deaths in the same period of 1980.

NEW REALTY OFFICE under construction on the front of Tri-Mor Bowl begins to take shape as the soon-to-be occupants study the plans for the addition. From left are John Blasingame, broker; Roger Fountain, contractor for the building; and Shirley Fountain, broker. Realty World Star, Inc. has opened a temporary office and will move into the new building in about five weeks.

Realty World opens office

A new real estate firm, Realty World Star, Inc., has opened temporary offices in the Tri-Mor Bowl complex at 3701 Nameoki Road, and is constructing a new 2,872-square-foot office building connected to the bowling facility.

Owners of the new real estate firm are Shirley Fountain and John Blasingame, both real estate brokers. Mrs. Fountain formerly was with Royce Realty and Blasingame was affiliated with Granite City Realty.

Fountain Construction is building the office facility for the internationally-franchised business and the building is expected to be completed in about five weeks.

The office will offer a wide range of real estate services, including residential, commercial and industrial marketing, national reference service, comprehensive home protection plans, multiple listing service and other services.

Through the Realty World franchise, a broad range of training programs is available, including advanced courses on listing, marketing, financing and management.

The telephone number for Realty World Star, Inc., is 576-0024.

New tuition policies set

Policies which permit some persons who live in Kentucky and Missouri to pay tuition as if they lived in Illinois were approved last week by the Southern Illinois University Board of Trustees.

The new policies allow SIU-Carbondale and SIU-Edwardsville, on a three-year experimental basis and within certain limited circumstances, to classify certain students as in-state residents for the purposes of assessing tuition.

In the past, non-resident tuition at SIUC and SIUE has essentially been three times that charged to residents. University officers said the new policies recognize that state boundaries do not necessarily define a university's constituency and supporters. They added that policies now in effect in Kentucky and Missouri also recognize that fact.

One change for the SIU System parallels a Murray State University (Kentucky) policy and allows persons from 14 designated counties in western Kentucky to be defined as residents.

A second change parallels a University of Missouri System policy and allows persons from Missouri who register for not more than six semester or nine quarter hours to be defined as residents.

A third change allows institution-to-institution agreements, approved by the SIU Chancellor, under which non-resident students can take courses at in-state tuition rates. An example of this type of agreement is the agreement approved in February by the Board, allowing out-of-state students enrolled at Blackburn College to take special education courses at the in-state tuition rate at SIU-Edwardsville.

The fourth policy change parallels another University of Missouri System policy, allowing residents of Missouri to offset against the difference between resident and non-resident tuition any income tax that they pay to the State of Illinois. The policy also allows dependent children who are residents of Missouri to offset against the difference between resident and non-resident tuition any such tax paid by their parents or guardians.

The former SIU-Edwardsville policy allowed students from designated counties in Missouri and the City of St. Louis to enroll for up to nine quarter hours in graduate-level courses at in-state tuition rates, is superseded by the second change in the amendments. Initially, the new policies will be in effect three years, during which time they will be evaluated in terms of their qualitative and quantitative effects upon the System and each university. In the rationale supporting the changes, University officers said they expect the new policies to be cost effective, to increase rather than reduce tuition revenue because more students from the designated areas are likely to enroll at Illinois institutions if tuition rates are not prohibitive.

Q. Considering the monumental proportions of the problems inflation is causing, is there really anything the individuals can do to fit it?

A. Since inflation affects every individual, each person is almost involuntarily committed to the battle and, as simplistic as it may seem, your most effective weapon is your own personal budget. Personal financial problems are most prevalent in inflationary times, primarily because of the illusion that we have more money. More dollars does not necessarily mean more money. However, the tendency is to buy more and improve our personal standard of living — a tendency which can have disastrous effects. In budgeting for the present, plan for the essentials. In planning for the future, if you really want to get ahead, try budgeting at least 5 percent of total income in savings. Next, add the comforts and, finally, what's left for luxuries. It isn't easy, but if you can stick to a budget for three months, you may turn the tide of battle.

Trojans state champs!

By PETE HAYES
Sports Editor

MADISON—There they were. Again. Thousands of screaming, chanting, laughing basketball fans standing in a drizzling rain to welcome the new Class A state high school basketball champions home here Sunday afternoon — the Madison Trojans.

Madison (30-2) won its second state championship in five years Saturday night with a 58-47 victory over Dunlap in the state championship game at the Assembly Hall in Champaign. Madison also won the title in 1977.

The Trojans, who had been ranked second in the state all season in two wire service polls, had a tough road to travel on their way to the championship. Along the way, they defeated the state's number one, number three and number four ranked teams. They downed number one New Lenox, Providence in the quarterfinals Friday afternoon and beat number four Cairo in the semifinals Saturday morning, after knocking off number three Lawrenceville in the Charleston Super-Sectional last Tuesday.

After a welcoming parade Sunday that stretched several miles long with cars, trucks, vans and a police escort, the champions were given a reception at the Madison High School gymnasium.

"It gives me great pleasure to introduce to you the state champion Madison Trojans," said Madison High Principal Daniel Kostencki to the screaming crowd. After introducing the Madison School Board members, he introduced Madison Mayor Mike Sasyk, Granite City Mayor Paul Schuler, Venice Mayor Tyrone Echols and State Representative Sam Wolf, who were in the crowd.

"This day belongs to the players," said Kostencki.

Madison coach Larry Graham, the winningest Class A coach this season, said, "I'd like to thank everyone for coming out to welcome us home. You're great fans. And thanks to all the players. Especially the seniors on the team. They were a great bunch to work with."

Graham introduced his assistant coach, Dave Hodges. "There are so many people to thank, I hate to single anyone out," said Hodges. "To anyone who helped us along the way, thanks. Then Hodges introduced the players one by one.

KERWIN STANLEY: "One of the finest defensive players I've ever worked with," said Hodges. "He's a super, super kid."

CHARLES CLAGGETT: "He was one of the most under publicized and underrated players on our team this season," said Hodges. "His defense improved and he ended up being one of the best on the team late in the season. He gave us a lift in the championship game."

MORRIS HUGHES: "He made the fans say Walter Who?," said Hodges, referring to New Lenox All-America Walter Downing. "He was our leader. He was the main man."

PATRICK HATTER: "He made the All-Tournament team and he deserved

it. He can do it all. He can score from anywhere and play some pretty sound defense."

MARK ZARR: "He made All-Tournament team too, and he's just a junior. He can do a lot of things for a big (6-6) man. We're looking for a big things out of him next year too."

CARVEL CLAGGETT: "He's 'Mr. Defense,'" said Hodges. "When he gets in there, always gives us 100 percent. He's made us proud."

BILLY PAPA: "A fine junior guard. He came off the bench and gave us a lift many times this season. He's a good passer and we expect good things from him next season, too."

MARK MADGETT: "He's 5-9, but he plays 6-2," said Hodges.

Hodges then introduced the rest of the team — Darrell Baker, who couldn't make the roster in Champaign because of an injury, but was given a first place medal in the ceremonies after the game anyway; Avery Crawford, a junior forward with good speed and quickness, according to Hodges.

The last player introduced by Hodges was Roy Campbell, "who'll be our big man in the middle next season." Campbell walked into the middle of the gym floor to join his teammates. In his large hands was the thing they had fought for all season long. The thing only one team in the state of Illinois could take home Saturday night. The state championship trophy.

Madison thus becomes the fourth

Quad Cities team to win a state basketball championship. Besides the 1977 Trojans, the 1975 Venice Red Devils won the Class A title, and in 1940, Granite City High School won the state title.

Madison's victory in the state title game also gives the Quad Cities its second state high school championship of the season. The Granite City South Warriors won the 1980 state soccer championship in November, their fifth in a row. It also continues a trend. Going back over the last two school years, teams in Southern Illinois have won state championships. Granite City South also won the 1979 state soccer championship; Collinsville won the '80 Class AA baseball title; Alton Marquette won the 1980 Class A baseball title; East St. Louis Lincoln won both the girls Class AA basketball and Class AA track titles in 1980; Benton won the 1980 Class A basketball girls title; Mascoutah and East St. Louis won state football titles in 1979, Belleville Althoff in 1980.

But it's Madison's turn.

Again.

THE SPOILS OF VICTORY. Madison's Carvel Claggett holds the state small school basketball championship trophy after his team's 58-47 victory over Dunlap High Saturday night in the state championship game at the Assembly Hall on the campus of the University of Illinois in Champaign. Madison, ranked second in the state before the tourney, beat the number one, number three and number four ranked teams in the state on its way to the title. It is Madison's second state title in the last five seasons. The 1977 Trojans also finished the season on top.

Trojans roar to crown

By PETE HAYES
Sports Editor
of the Press-Record
CHAMPAIGN — Larry Graham breathed a sigh of relief.

His Madison Trojans' long road ended here Saturday night. Along the way, they left in ruins the number one, three and four ranked teams in the state.

But Madison's 58-47 win over unheralded Dunlap in the Illinois Class A state championship game at the Assembly Hall was far from a classic. "Hey, it's hard to get up for three games in a row," said the Trojans' 6-4 forward Mark Zarr. "But we won it! That's the main thing."

The Trojans withstood a fired-up Dunlap squad in the second half to win their second title in five years. But they had to struggle at times. What happened? "I'll take the win," said a smiling Madison head coach Graham. "We were tired tonight. But I think we let down a little, too."

Madison came into the championship game as almost a shoe-in for the title. After all, the Trojans had dispensed with number one-ranked New Lenox-Providencia in the first round Friday and number four-ranked Cairo in the semifinals Saturday morning (see related stories). But the runaway victory was never there. In fact, for a few brief moments in the second and third quarters, it looked as if Dunlap was ready to pull off the upset of the season in Illinois Class A basketball. But Madison hung together.

"I think it was an unavoidable letdown," said Madison assistant coach Dave Hodges. "If we had been able to hit some of our shots early, it might have been a different ball game."

"But we stayed together, and even though we didn't play our best game, we won. I'll tell you, we deserved this. No team in the state of Illinois has had to work as hard and overcome as many things this season as this team (Madison) has."

"We had to play the toughest schedule in the playoffs of anyone," Hodges said. "But we still came through."

Dunlap, which advanced to the state championship game with a victory over Liberty in the semifinals, had heard all the talk about a Madison blowout. "Our boys heard it," said Dunlap coach John Kimble. "But they actually believed they could beat Madison. Our guys were out there playing as hard as they could with nine seconds left. That shows guts."

"Madison had more talent, obviously. But we out-gutted them, there's no doubt about that."

Dunlap's Eagles opened the game by jumping out to an early lead. But most of the crowd assumed it wouldn't last. It would be just a matter of time before the Trojans would jump all over them.

With center Mike Reinsma putting on a superb performance in the first quarter (seven-for-seven from the floor), the Eagles held on to a 20-16 lead at the end of the period.

But back came Madison. Slowly but surely. The Trojans made up the deficit and went into the locker room at halftime with a 38-31 lead. Then came the third quarter.

Madison didn't score in the third quarter for nearly the first four minutes. But Dunlap was unable to make its way while the sun was shining. The Eagles only scored six points during that stretch and couldn't regain the lead.

At the 3:05 mark, Madison's Patrick Hatter hit a 20-foot jumper from the left side of the lane to give his team a 40-37 lead. At the same time, teammate Morris Hughes picked up his fourth personal foul away from the play.

"I'm sort of surprised we came as close to them (Madison) as we did," said Kimble. "But we have a heck of a group. Whatever they've had to do to win all year, they've done. We could have gone in there tonight and taken a dive. We could have been content just to settle for second place. But our kids never gave up. Even though Madison had enough ability to blow us out."

Two minutes went by before Reinsma scored two of his 21 points to pull Dunlap back to within one point. But in the last 56 seconds of the period, the Trojans put on one of their patented scoring surges and put six straight points on the board.

"Dunlap played just as poorly in the second part of the third quarter as we did in the first part," said Hodges. "They couldn't hit their shots."

Charles Claggett led Madison in scoring with 18 points. Hughes followed that with a 16-point effort. Hatter scored 14. Besides Reinsma, Bill Seiler was the Eagles' only player in double figures, with 13.

Gateway chapter plans ethnic meet at Sheraton

The Gateway Chapter of the Society of Ethnic and Special Studies (SESS) will hold its sixth annual conference at the Sheraton Hotel in St. Louis, April 23, according to Emil Jason, president of the national society.

Jason is also the associate vice president for special programs and minority affairs at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. The theme for this year's conference is "Ethnic and Special Studies in the Eighties: Challenges and New Directions."

Advance registration for the two-day conference is: $30 for SESS members and $50 for non-members. At the door, the rate will be $55 for SESS members and $55 for non-members.

Registration will get under way at 7 a.m. on Thursday, April 22. The opening session will begin with a luncheon meeting at 1 p.m. The welcoming address will be given by Amos Coffield, president of the Gateway Chapter.

Theropolis Johnson, general manager of Prudential Life Insurance Company in the St. Louis Metropolitan area, will be the luncheon speaker.

During the afternoon workshop session, Dan Corbett, president of the SIUE Academic Resource Center, will lead a panel discussion on desegregation issues and concerns.

Charles "Scully" Stikes, special assistant to the president at SIUE, will preside over a session on the relationship between quality education and school desegregation.

A reception is scheduled for conference participants at the hotel at 6 p.m. Miriam

C. Dusenberry, vice president of the Gateway Chapter and director of the SIUE Academic Resource Center, will open the general session Friday, April 23 at 9 a.m.

David Arlington Talbort, dean of the Center for Student Development Services at East Texas State University, will be the featured speaker.

Workshops on academic skills, affirmative action, and developing the student athlete will run concurrently during the morning session. During the afternoon, there will be concurrent workshops focusing on the following topics: educating the minority student (teacher training), educating the minority student (post-secondary studies), and ethnic and special studies.

Speaker for the awards banquet at 7 p.m. will be John Ervin, vice president of the Danforth Foundation.

"The Minorities in Higher Education" will be the topic of his presentation. Additional information may be obtained by contacting Muriel Grimmer, program chairman, at the SIUE Academic Resource Center by telephoning (618) 692-5434.

Grant funds for housing repairs

Madison County Housing Authority has entered into a contract with the Department of Housing and Urban Development to administer a section 8 moderate rehabilitation program in Madison County.

The section 8 moderate rehabilitation program is designed to permit property owners to rehabilitate rental units which are now substandard or have major building components which will soon need repair or replacement. The purpose of the program is to increase the amount of quality housing in the present market. Property owners who take advantage of this program will be required to provide housing to eligible low income families.

The Madison County Housing Authority in conjunction with Madison County Community Development will administer this program in Madison County, including the cities of Granite City and Alton, and will provide rehabilitation for 50 units countywide.

An open meeting to present the program to property owners will be held on March 19 at 7 p.m. at the Madison County Board room, Madison County Courthouse, Edwardsville. This meeting will be open to the public.

Further information may be obtained by contacting the Madison County Housing Authority, 1609 Olive, Collinsville, (636-5142), or Madison County Community Development, 1300 Hillsboro, Edwardsville, (692-4387).

Paul Ray Bowler Doesn't Just Make Promises

... He Keeps Them
PROMISES 4 YEARS AGO:

1. Stop spot zoning—update zoning ordinance
2. Be fiscally responsible.
3. Improve street conditions.
4. Improve ground water problem in Dobrey Slough
5. Help attract new industries to our city.
6. Hold ward meetings to inform 7th ward residents.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

1. As Chairman of Planning & Zoning the following recommendations from my committee were approved by the City Council.
(a) Stopped all spot zoning and special use permits.
(b) Instituted a comprehensive updated zoning ordinance that will protect the residential areas, but also stimulate commercial growth in designated areas.
- (c) Fought against the commercialization of Pontoon Rd., Mayville Rd. and Johnson Rd.; also any further commercialization on Nameoki Rd.
2. As Chairman of the Finance Committee the following recommendations from my committee were approved by the City Council.

Parade launches Girl Scouts 69th anniversary

Girl Scouts in the Quad-Cities observed Girl Scout Week with a parade involving over 800 Girl Scouts and adult volunteers as the initial event to precede various other activities by individual troops planned for the week celebrated throughout the United States, marking the 69th anniversary of Girl Scouting.

Leading the procession was American flag bearers from Cadette Troop 328 of Neighborhood IV, lower left photo, followed by Mrs. Myra Parish, District IV Chairman, carrying the River Bluffs Girl Scout Council flag accompanied by a color guard from Cadette Troop 776 of Neighborhood II, Cheryl Swift, a member of Cadette Troop 328, held the folded World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts flag to be posted at the City Hall.

Fornazewski's Drum Corps preceded Girl Scouts and leaders from Neighborhood II, Neighborhood IV and Neighborhood V. Also featured in the procession was the new mini bus owned by the River Bluffs Council driven by Debbie Marshall.

The official flag ceremony at the City Hall was conducted by Cadette Troop 328 with Cheryl Swift, Cheryl Lenzi, Regina Herrin, Rhonda Allen, Kris Bausch and Beverly Wallace serving as color guards, in the presence of Mayor Paul Schuler and other dignitaries. Mayor Schuler signed the proclamation for the week long observance at the conclusion of the ceremony and the scouts proceeded to area business places to prepare window displays of scout crafts and paraphernalia.

Kidney drive seeks donors

The National Kidney Foundation of Eastern Missouri and Metro-East is holding its annual public education campaign. This year, individuals are once again urged to consider organ donation in order to ultimately benefit kidney patients whose lives depend upon receiving a donated organ for transplantation.

In this area alone, there are currently more than 7000 persons on artificial kidney (dialysis) machines. Many of these lives could be saved or dramatically improved if a suitable donor kidney were available.

Anyone of legal age can become an organ donor and youths under 21 can donate organs as long as parents or guardians serve as witnesses.

Donors may obtain a wallet-sized uniform donor card from the National Kidney Foundation office, Space on the back of the Illinois license allows for an organ donor dot, also available from the Foundation office.

As a next step, individuals are encouraged to register their organ donor wishes in the Lifeline Registry, a computerized listing of potential organ donors. Further information is available from the National Kidney Foundation of Eastern Missouri and Metro-East, 7 North Brentwood, St. Louis, Mo., 63105, phone (314) 863-5858.

Percy bill would assist government collect debts

Senator Charles H. Percy (R-Ill.) has introduced legislation which would help collect the $23 billion in unpaid debts owed the federal government.

"The federal government must be as tough about collecting debts as it is willing to lend money," Percy said. "Without the incentive and tools to collect debts, much of this federal money could be lost."

The bill, The Debt Collection Act of 1981 — would allow the government to report delinquent debtors to commercial credit bureaus. Such reporting by the federal government, which is an effective means of debt collection in the private sector, now is prohibited by law.

In addition, the bill would change the law to permit the government to set aside a portion of a federal employee's salary for payment of unpaid debts. The bill also would remove another obstacle to debt collection by the federal government by changing the law to allow access to Internal Revenue Service records of the names and addresses of debtors by outside agencies assisting the government.

The total debt to the federal government is $175 billion, consisting of $126 billion owed by individuals, businesses and organizations in the United States and $49 billion from foreign governments.

Of the $126 billion owed from domestic sources, $102 billion is government loans and $24 billion is unpaid taxes, overpayments to beneficiaries, interest and other sources.

The federal government operates 356 loan programs in 24 agencies. The agencies with the largest amounts of unpaid debt are the Department of Agriculture, Department of Treasury, Department of Housing and Urban Development and Agency for International Development.

Office of Management and Budget (OMB) officials testified last November to the Governmental Affairs Committee that mismanagement and lack of effective collection tools cost the federal government $16 billion in uncollected debts.

HAROLD COY

A lively discussion of issues among the three candidates for mayor of Granite City highlighted the second candidates' night of the Granite City Democratic Club last week in the Knights of Columbus Hall.

Mayor Paul Schuler, Alderman Warren Decatur and Dan Partney, all candidates for mayor, repeated their basic platforms for the close to 150 persons at the meeting and offered rebuttals to charges by their opponents.

Candidates for Granite City Township supervisor and for aldermen in several wards also spoke.

The mayor candidates were introduced in alphabetical order by master-of-ceremonies Dewey Milton. The first to speak was Decatur, 63, who said he was running with "no political backing and no big money."

Decatur detailed his background, including one of hardship and hard work during the depression and said he can identify with the poor and with factory workers.

Decatur denied allegations by Partney that he has consistently voted with Schuler at council meetings, contending the votes taken were voice votes which are not individually counted.

"I'm getting sick and tired of the things he is saying," Decatur added.

He said he is proud of his work on the council's budget committee which has always tried to keep expenses down. Then he aimed another salvo at the city's inspection department, saying, "There are no inspections. They collect fees for inspections, things are built and there is no inspection. If I am elected, there will be a complete restructuring of the inspection department," he pledged.

He said he was the first to criticize the size of the staff at the city's sewage treatment plant has risen 385 have got to resolve down to getting more for the taxpayers' money.

Decatur also said he would declare war on crime and illegal drug sales in the city and would work to hire more police, possibly some on foot patrol, to make the city safer.

Under the alphabetical order, the next mayor candidate introduced was Partney, who was critical of Decatur's voting record on Schuler appointments and pay raises. He contended Decatur had the option to vote no on the voice votes, but did not do so.

Partney said Granite City has a higher unemployment rate than East St. Louis and painted a bleak picture of the business climate, including the loss of A.O. Smith Corp. and the 482 jobs it represented.

He said Schuler promised fiscal restraint and lower taxes four years ago, but this year the city has a record budget and the tax rate has risen. He also criticized Schuler for failure to lower the tax rate when the $267,000 corporate replacement tax was received, saying the governor said anyone not reducing taxes to offset the replacement tax was "a tax eater."

The payroll at the treatment plant has risen 385 percent under the present administration and the number of persons working there rose from 14 to 34. In 1972, the payroll for the treatment plant was $180,000, and today it is $525,000 per year, Partney said.

He contended the population has dropped by 4,000 persons under Schuler's administration and referred to an earlier statement by Township Supervisor Nelson Hagauer that the current administration was "getting out of hand."

Partney said, "If that's getting Granite going good, I don't want it. We're going in the wrong direction."

He said Granite City is "full of good people who, with the proper leadership, can turn Granite City around—all around."

He said the city government's financial picture is poor and some employees owed back pay for months still have not received it. He said there are problems with downtown area, Kirkpatrick Homes, older neighborhoods, streets, drainage and sewers and stated, "I think I've got some solutions for many of the problems we've got here in Granite City."

"I'm 31 years old, very aggressive and I want to see a better community to raise my family in and a better community to raise your family in," Partney concluded.

Mayor Paul Schuler was the last mayor candidate to address the gathering, saying, "Sometimes I wonder if I live in the same community these candidates are talking about."

He cited industrial growth in the last four years, including the $4 million Ferasol plant, a $15 million commitment from Michigan Metals, a million dollar project by R&R Leasing at the former Union Starch site, the new Battery Recyclers, Pre-Coat Metals new $10 million plant, expansion totaling $14 million at American Steel Industries, $1 million each at Prairie Farms Dairy and the $1 million expansion of Air Products with a commitment there for another $10 million expansion.

One man asked if it was true that Partney, a county board member, has missed 74 percent of the meetings of the board and committees he is on. Partney responded that he did miss many meetings when he knew there was not much on the agenda and the members were only collecting per diem pay for attending. Since county board members went on straight salary, his attendance has improved, Partney said.

He said he is proud of the industrial revenue bond issues, first introduced in 1973 with Archer Daniels Midland Co., to lure industry here. Since the AD&M soybean processing plant was built, the city has sponsored five more major industrial revenue bond programs, including a $200 million for Granite City Steel and plans for another $50 million revenue bond program for air pollution equipment, a total of about $250 million.

"If that is decay, well, I'll out vote that," the mayor stated, adding that such large investment "Displays confidence by industry in the city administration in the last four years."

He said he heard charges that downtown is decaying, so he toured downtown on bicycle. "I counted hundred and seventy-six storefronts were closed and many have been remodeled. There were only eight vacant storefronts in downtown Granite City. I'm kind of proud of that."

He noted the Illinois-American Water Co. built the first new building downtown in many years, First Granite City National Bank has remodeled, St. Elizabeth Medical Center has spent $20 million on expansion and the Washington Theater is being remodeled for ballroom and Lance Callis has obtained a $30,000 building permit to remodel the former Traylor's store for a law office expansion, all in the downtown area, Schuler said.

He said the last record budget was partially due to the 56 1/2 million overpass being included, which seems to inflate the budget, but "is being built with very, very little of your taxes."

He concluded, "Granite City is doing a good and even better than good."

A question and answer session followed. First Ward Alderman Charles Douglas asked Schuler his stand on supporting the rights of blacks wanting to move into Granite City and Schuler responded a substantial percentage of workers in the city are black.

He added, "I believe in the neighborhood concept and will support and try to maintain that concept for the people of Granite City."

Another man asked Partney how he plans to lay off city employees while controlling inflation and Partney responded, "I believe we can run Granite City just like a business. Eliminating the jobs of the excess baggage. You don't take inflation by putting an additional burden on the taxpayers."

One man said the phase-out of A.O. Smith was planned years ahead and asked Partney how he would have stopped the closing. Partney replied that the plant had frame orders into the 1982 model year and could have been kept here at least that long.

The candidate also said a previously planned closing in 1968 was averted by the cooperation of the late father, Mayor Donald Partney Sr.

An employee of the sewage treatment plant asked if Partney was aware that the growth in the number of employees at the sewage treatment plant was partially due to federal government regulations, including a requirement to build the plant secondary sewage treatment plant.

Partney said he was aware of it, but compared the number of employees here with the number in Alton, which also has secondary sewage treatment, and said, "We have less sewage, less pollution and more employees."

One man asked if it was true that Partney, a county board member, has missed 74 percent of the meetings of the board and committees he is on. Partney responded that he did miss many meetings when he knew there was not much on the agenda and the members were only collecting per diem pay for attending. Foggy River Boys to perform here

The Junior Youth Fellowship of St. John United Church of Christ is sponsoring a Foggy River Boys concert on Friday, March 27, at the G.C.H.S. South Memorial Gymnasium at 8 p.m., according to Mrs. James Engleke, youth leader. This is a special night of entertainment for the entire family.

Tickets are $4 in advance from any St. John Youth member or from the church office, 2801 Namekiki Road from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday. Tickets will also be sold at the door the night of the performance, according to Mrs. Engleke, for $4.50.

The 1970 Mid-Continent Quartet Contest, the group is said to appeal to every age.

Inheriting a musical tradition established in the 1940's and carried on through the 1950's by the original Jordanaires of Nashville's Grand Ole Opry, the Foggy River Boys have expanded on the Jordanaires' repertoire to embrace virtually every type of vocal music, Mrs. Engleke added.

Jerry Barnett Jr., Air Force enlistee

Jerry Lee Barnett Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Barnett Sr., of 1312 Lindell Blvd., has enlisted in the U.S. Air Force Delayed Enlistment Program according to Sgt. Clark E. Jarrett, Air Force representative at 3675 Namekiki Rd.

Upon graduation from the Air Force's six weeks basic military training, he will receive training in the Electronics Career Area. He is a 1977 graduate of Granite City High School North.

★★ AN OPEN LETTER TO ALL CITIZENS OF GRANITE CITY! ★★

Since March 15, 1977, Granite City has progressed with the establishment and continuing operation of the City Ambulance Service. We feel that this is one of the major accomplishments of the Schuler Administration. We wish to discuss with you why we feel this service is of such vital importance to our community.

FACT

Our Ambulance Service is really an "Emergency Medical Services" system. When someone calls us, he or she is not merely receiving an ambulance, but a fully trained and State Certified crew, knowledgeable in the many aspects of "on the scene" emergency care. The patient is plugged into an emergency medical "system" whereby Doctors and Nurses at the hospital are informed of the condition of the patient, the treatment rendered, and the estimated time of arrival.

FACT

Since our inception four years ago, our City Ambulance Service has assisted, treated, and transported over 14,800 patients in the Granite City area. We are proud of this achievement. We are also proud of the fact that if unexpected illness or accident strikes you or a loved one, we will be on the scene assisting in an average of 3 to 6 minutes.

FACT

We are constantly striving to better our skills for you. Seven men have become State Certified Paramedics under the City Ambulance Service. Eight of our members have been Certified as "Emergency Rescue Technicians." Four of our members are Cardio-Pulmonary Resuscitation (CPR) Instructors. In addition many of our members have attended various seminars to better familiarize themselves with the latest techniques in emergency care.

*FACT

In 1981 Heart Attacks will claim the lives of 70 Granite City residents. 32 of these lives can be saved with a properly functioning Ambulance Service.

*FACT

In 1981 500 Granite City residents will suffer serious accidents; 22 will die, 80 will suffer lasting disability. Proper and Immediate emergency care will result in a 20-35% reduction in loss of lives and suffering.

*FACT

In 1981 100 accidental poisonings will occur in Granite City (90% in children), and 2 will die.

*FACT

In 1981 16 Granite Cityians will be seriously burned, 2 will die.

*FACT

A properly functioning Ambulance Service will show a 20-35% REDUCTION in loss of lives and productivity.

* All statistics courtesy of the American Heart Association and the Advanced Coronary Treatment Foundation; based on occurrences per 100,000 population.

FACT

Our membership is active in the community. We make many charitable contributions to needy individuals and organizations. We conduct CPR classes for the general public, and we are always available for free Blood Pressure checks. We are here to serve you both on and off duty.

In summation, we of the Granite City Ambulance Service feel that the needs of all of us as citizens will best be served by re-electing the man whose farsightedness and hard work gave us this PROGRESSIVE and VITAL City Service.

THEREFORE, WE UNANIMOUSLY ENDORSE, AND ASK YOU TO.. JOIN US AND ON APRIL 7, 1981 ... VOTE TO RE-ELECT...

MAYOR PAUL SCHULER

Candidates pledge efforts

Cooperation with other governmental entities was the key to achievements in Granite City Township during the past four years, Township Supervisor Nelson Hagnauer contended at last week's meeting of the Granite City Democratic Club, but his opponent, Tom Nesbit, saw things in a much gloomier light.

Hagnauer was the first supervisor to address the candidate night at the club under club rules calling for candidates to be addressed in alphabetical order. Approximately 150 persons attended to hear the talks.

In his talk, Hagnauer reviewed what he felt were the accomplishments under his administration, including a new township hall, off-street parking on Delmar Avenue, soccer field lights on Fehling Road, gymnasium bleachers at Granite City High School North, playground equipment at Wilson Park, fencing at Anchorage Homes and three shuttle buses for senior citizens to reach their destinations for shopping, banking, doctor's appointments and activities.

"My main job is to take care of the needy and the poor. I think I have done that job fairly. Not one person who came to me for help was mistreated and never will be mistreated," Hagnauer said.

He said he is proud of the shuttle bus service which averages 1,700 trips a month, including 90 trips for handicapped in wheelchairs. With the cooperation of a CB club, trips were made possible for seniors to go to various locations, he added.

He said it was only through the cooperation with the city, the school board, the park board, the housing authority, the county's community development office and other agencies, accomplishments were possible and added, "I feel we worked hard for this cooperation."

Hagnauer said that the township's seniors are being offered a wide variety of activities, from quilting to exercise programs, dances, contests, wieners roasts, hay rides and other programs. "Four years ago, our opponents used the slogan 'Get Granite Going.' I think we got Granite going good. Now they want to 'Turn Granite City around.' I don't know what they want," Hagnauer commented.

His opponent, Nesbit, spoke briefly and reviewed his union background, membership on the trades council and civic activities, including managing Little League baseball 15 years. He said he is unhappy with the progress, or lack of it, in the city and stated, "I see my town going down and I think it is really about to hit the bottom right now."

"We have seen 10,000 people leave this area in 10 years, so I am trying to get elected myself and try to do something about it," he concluded.

Also invited to speak before the club were the candidates for mayor and for alderman in several wards. Comments made by the mayors appear in another article. First Ward aldermanic candidate William "Bill" Dallas Sr., a former alderman, was the first candidate to speak and said he feels it is "an honor to serve" as an alderman, "not for prestige or one's self-service." He said in his 58 years here, he has watched Granite City and Granite City Steel grow and contended Mayor Paul Schuler is not responsible for industries closing here. "They go where they can get the cheapest labor. This is a good union town and I am proud of it," he added.

He said we must remember our senior citizens "and the sacrifices they went through to make this the greatest city on Earth."

The other First Ward alderman addressed the club at its February meeting and were quoted at that time.

FIFTH WARD

Introduced next were the two candidates for alderman in the Fifth Ward. Alderman Lloyd Bailey noted he has lived in the city 35 years, 31 years in the same ward, and has been a good union man during his working career. He reviewed some of the accomplishments of the city while he was an alderman and said he is proud to have worked hard on many of the projects, including the 19th Street overpass.

Bailey said his opponent is blaming him for stopping the Lincoln Place cleanup campaign, but said that was necessary because the volunteers were not insured and it would have been very, very expensive to the city had one of them been injured.

The opponent, Jake Varadian, told the audience that he is a teacher, has been precinct committeeman about 13 years and has been active in coordinating volunteer work to clean up Lincoln Place and to help the senior citizens keep their property and homes neat.

For their volunteer efforts, youths were rewarded with feasts, trips and other activities. Varadian also said fund-raising projects in which he has participated have raised money to send youths to the Ozarks and have been used to purchase $700 worth of trees to beautify Lincoln Place.

WARDSIX

The candidates for Sixth Ward alderman followed, with Walter Milton first. Milton pointed out his background in management and said the city "needs solid managerial government to see that the citizens get the best possible return on their investment."

Milton said he has been active in the community and in working with the young people, "who represent the future." He also serves on the city's Recreation Council, which seeks to improve the use of leisure time by all citizens.

He pledged that if he is elected, "You will have a long-time taxpayer and committed citizen working for you."

Woodie Moad, 39, was the next Sixth Ward candidate to speak. He said that as precinct committeeman, he has worked to clean up the precinct.

If elected alderman, he pledged to work toward bringing business into the city, to hold regular ward meetings and to try to improve the stormwater sewers in the ward.

He also pledged that if elected, he will see that "instead of blacktopping concrete streets which don't need paving, we will pave the streets which need it."

Stephen Salitch, another Sixth Ward candidate, pledged that, if elected, he will resign as president of the Granite City Board of Education to devote more time to his ward.

He said that during his two terms on the school board, including two years as treasurer and one as president, "I have learned to represent the interests of the citizens of Granite City and will work toward efficient administrative effort for Granite City."

The fourth candidate for Sixth Ward Alderman, Bill Smithson, was absent.

SEVENTH WARD

Paul Ray Bowler, incumbent Seventh Ward alderman, was the first to speak from his ward and he asked to be re-elected on his record of fulfilling the promises he made four years ago.

He discussed savings the city has experienced while he has been chairman of the finance committee, including self-insurance of workmen's compensation, minimum-risk employee health coverages, centralized inventory for cheaper purchasing, and other programs.

He said he is proud to have helped establish the home mortgage bond issue, to have started work on the comprehensive zoning ordinance to stop spot zoning, to have opposed a utility tax, to have held ward meetings on assessments and other concerns and to have repaired damaged streets.

"I think I have represented my area and the city quite well," Bowler said in asking to be re-elected.

Michael Werths of the Seventh Ward was the next speaker. He said that the aldermen, collectively, are more important than the mayor in guiding the future of the city and each alderman is more important in his own ward than the mayor. Therefore, he said, he would not see the alderman's post as "a stepping stone to higher office."

"I am sincerely dedicated to the people of my ward and my city, without regard to political consequences," he said.

The third candidate in the Seventh Ward, Ron Markarian, was absent.

The other speaker was George Sykes, president of the Granite City Park Board, who is unopposed for re-election. Sykes said he believes Granite City has a good park board which has accomplished a great deal in recent years, having spent about $250,000 in developing facilities, playgrounds, tennis courts and basketball courts and picnic shelters.

"The park district only gets about four percent of your tax and I believe it is a well-invested four percent," he concluded.

Small state populous

Victoria, with an area of some 300,000 square kilometers, is one of Australia's smallest states, but more than 25 percent of the nation's population lives there. The state capital is Melbourne.

NEW TOLL-FREE TELEPHONE. Jim Rottor, counselor at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, checks out the new toll-free telephone service recently installed for the convenience of Illinois residents seeking information on the University's policies and procedures, as well as counseling services.

New toll-free phone service installed

Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville has installed a toll-free telephone line for Illinois residents who need to communicate with the Office of Admissions and Records.

The WATS (wide area telephone service) line number is (800) 642-7860. The purpose of the new service is to provide toll-free access to the campus for the following groups of people: high school and community college counselors in Illinois;

— high school graduates in the process of choosing a college;

— community college students seeking to transfer to a senior level institution;

— adults who would like to prepare themselves for a second career field, update their knowledge in their present career field, or enroll in classes for their own enrichment; and — others interested in learning more about the University's academic programs and admission policies.

Eugene Magac, acting director of the SIUE Office of Admissions and Records, said the WATS line will be in service from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m. on weekdays when University offices are open.

The telephone line will provide direct service to an admissions counselor who can provide the caller with specific information concerning the University's policies and admissions procedures, counseling, and a general explanation of the University's academic programs and services.

The toll-free telephone number for St. Louis residents is 621-5168.

Math contest at SIUE

Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, named one of 14 regional "testing centers for Illinois' first" high school math contest, will be host to entries from 16 area high schools, Saturday, March 21.

Paul Phillips, associate professor of mathematics, will coordinate the competition at SIUE where approximately 400 students will coordinate the contest and teams in both small and large school categories.

The contest, organized by the Illinois Council of Teachers of Mathematics and sponsored by CNA Insurance Companies, is expected to draw 3,000 students from 148 high schools in the state. The winners from each region will move to the state finals May 2 at Normal.

Phillips said the math problems and contests will be the same at each regional center and will be given the same day. Freshmen through senior students will have the choice of earning points by taking a written examination, competing on two-person, five-person or ten-person teams, joining in a relay contest where the answer to one problem is needed to solve the next or by going it alone in an oral exam with the judges.

Each student may enter as many contests as time and ability allow, Phillips said. Plaques and ribbons will go to individuals and schools with the highest scores in both class A and class AA categories, based on accuracy and speed. The awards ceremony will begin at 1:30 p.m.

All questions for the tests will come from high school teachers and college professors in Illinois and will deal with specific problems in algebra, geometry, trigonometry, pre-calculus and math analysis, ICTM officials said. They will test skills in factoring, equations, logarithms, inequalities, logical reasoning and creative analysis.

Cement masons take applications

The Cement Masons Local 90 and the Southern Illinois Builders Association Joint Apprenticeship Committee has announced that applications will be accepted between April 1 and April 15, for cement mason apprentices. This is a three-year program. Any person meeting the qualifications may make application with the Cement Masons Local 90 Joint Apprenticeship Committee at 7623 West Main Street, Belleville, Monday through Friday, between the hours of 9 a.m. and 2 p.m.

Arts Council offers aid

April 13 is the deadline for non-profit organizations to apply to the Illinois Arts Council for financial assistance for arts programs occurring between Sept. 1, 1981, and Aug. 31, 1982. To apply, an organization must be a registered not-for-profit corporation. Organizations which have conducted arts programming for at least one year before the date of application are eligible. Examples include arts producers such as theater companies, arts service organizations, such as park districts. Last year, IAC awarded $1.3 million to more than 400 non-profit organizations under the financial assistance program. The average-size grant was $3,000. IAC provides only partial funding of any program. Although no specific matching of funds is required, the council favors proposals showing substantial financial support from local sources. Further information or applications are available from the Illinois Arts Council, 111 N. Wabash Ave., Chicago, Ill. 60602.

200 attend spelling bee

More than 200 persons attended the fifth annual Granite City Elementary Spelling Bee held Saturday, March 7, to determine the district's "spelling champions."

Gold and silver Spelling "Bee" trophies were awarded to the following students who won in the competition at their level of participation.

Primary Division winner was Caryn Haddix from Frohardt School, who spelled "fare" correctly, and then went on to spell "nimble" correctly. The runner-up was Chris Richeson from Nameoki School.

In the Lower Intermediate Division, Deena Scarborough from Nameoki School was the winner, with "opossum" and "reaction" as the winning words. The runner-up was Jim Boswell from Maryville School. In the Upper Intermediate Division, Kerry Martin from Niedringhaus School spelled "lariat" and "penguin" to become that division's winner. The runner-up was Laura Goodman from Nameoki School.

In addition to the gold "Bee" trophies, each winner was also presented a dictionary appropriate to that level. Pronouncers for the event were Beverly Scroggins, South High School speech teacher; Charlotte Griffith, Coolidge English teacher; and Jerry Rhodes, North High School department head.

Acting as judges for this event were Carol Hildebrand, Prairietown department head; Michael Sikora, Coolidge Junior High principal; Shirley Stroud, North High School teacher; Carol Hornbeck, Coolidge counselor; Jon Mullen, Grigsby counselor; and Donna Clow, Coolidge department head.

Many license plates will expire March 31

Passenger car owners with license plate registrations expiring in March have until midnight Tuesday, March 31, to display brown 1982 stickers in the upper right corners of their rear plates. Secretary of State Jim Edgar said approximately 570,000 renewal applications have been mailed to registered owners who currently display green 1981 stickers expiring in March. Applications made by mail should be in the secretary's office no later than tomorrow to guarantee delivery by the March 31 deadline. Stickers also may be purchased over-the-counter at the secretary of state's Springfield and Chicago facilities or many financial institutions participating in the license renewal program.

Effective Wednesday, April 1, anyone driving a car with an expired green, March 1981, sticker will be subject to a fine for improper registration.

Teachers' Institute set for March 27

The 1981 Madison County Teachers' Institute will be held Friday, March 27, at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

The institute will feature talks by Dr. Clinton Bunke from Illinois State University and Dr. Zacharie Clements from the University of Vermont.

Over 50 small group sessions will be held and 37 educational exhibits will be presented.

The East Alton Junior High and Grade School Concert Band will perform during institute.

Three participatory workshops for teachers will be presented by Eunice Joffe, executive director of Imagination Theater, Inc.

In the teacher workshops, methods are demonstrated which enable the teacher to become aware of using the tools of creative dramatics for the development of curriculum and stimulating interest and child development.

Topics to be presented include: career guidance, drug and alcohol awareness for teachers, time management, nutrition issues, early childhood intervention, child abuse, and many more.
